GREENFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

GREENFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

48 TEACHERS

1059 PUPILS

GREENFIELD High School is a modern comprehensive high school containing an Auditorium seating 1,000, a Library with 72 chairs, a Science Lecture room, Gymnasium and Cafeteria. The building was opened in 1924 and cost approximately $600,000. School begins at 8:15 and closes at 1:45 for the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes, while the Freshman class has a lunch period from 11:45 to 1:45, followed by two periods which close at 3:30. This plan offers a six-period day for all classes.

WILLIAM MARTIN AGONIS

"Bill"

"Curly hair," saith the sage, "is the gift of the gods."

Commercial Club (4).

"Bill" is a very likeable chap of distinct personality. Many of his friends here in school think he is rather bashful and a confirmed woman-hater, but try and tell this to some people. "Bill" is undecided whether he will take over the management of the A. & P. Store on Main Street or whether he will go to college. He is bound for success, anyway.

ETHEL'N ARLENE ALDRICH

"Owen"

"Knowledge rules the world."

President Pro Merito; Royal and Remington Typewriting Awards; Exponent (2, 3, 4, Assoc. Editor 3, Editor-in-chief 4); Year Book Staff, Editor-in-chief; "Pinafore" (2); Latin Club (3, 4); Debating Club (3, 4, Secretary 4); Assembly Orchestra (3, 4); Orchestra (1, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Student Council (3, 4, Clerk 3); Silver G; Valedictorian.

"Owen" has been about the busiest girl in the Senior class. Besides being a member of the Pro Merito and Editor-in-chief of the Exponent, she has found time for out-door sports. She loves tennis and swimming, and is an especially good skater. "Owen" is always good-natured, and this has helped her win many good friends. We all wish her four happy years at Smith.

BERNARD RIST ALEX

"Bernie"

"Born for success, he seems."

Football (1, 2, 3, 4); Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Baseball (1, 2, 3, 4); Track (2, 3, 4); President of Class (2); Senior Dance Committee (4); "The Boule Cabinet" (4); Hi-Y (Secretary 2, 3, 4); Student Council (3); Prize Speaking (3).

G. H. S. sports will not seem the same without "Bernie" playing. He is as popular with the girls as he is in athletics. Just recently he has taken up bridge playing. Wait and see, "Bernie" we won't tell all your purple moments. He is undecided about the future, but luck and success is with him wherever he goes or whatever he does.

FRANCES ELLEN ALLEN

"Fran"

"The very pink of perfection."

Vice-President of Pro Merito; Year Book Staff; "Belle of Barcelona" (1); "Pinafore" (2); "Pepita" (3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Latin Club (3, 4); Archery Club (4); Salutatorian (4).

"Fran" never giggles, never whispers (??) and always has all her lessons prepared. Her weakness is Corsiglia's drug store. We shall always remember "Fran" with mischief in her eye, for that's just natural for her. She is undecided as to what she will do next year, but time will tell.

KATHLEEN ELIZABETH BAGLEY

"Kay"

"She is gentle, she is shy
But there is mischief in her eye."

Year Book Staff; Dramatic Club (3, 4); Dancer in Operettas (1, 2); Secretary of Commercial Club (4); Secretary and Treasurer of Dramatic Club (4); Pro Merito; Royal and Remington Certificates; Gregg Certificate; Filing Certificate.

"Kay" has been seen but not heard in the corridors of G. H. S. for she doesn't believe in being noisy, but we surely would have missed her smile and sunny disposition. "Kay's" hobby is toe dancing, and she plans to travel to Europe in July to study this vocation.

CHESTER BAKER

"Chet"

"Silence is Golden."

Football (3, 4);

"Chet" is a quiet chap, but can you feature him being quiet in a football game? Girls never seem to bother "Chet" but he is quite a favorite with the boys. We hope that he will overcome his bashfulness some day and give the "weaker sex" a break. Our good wishes travel with you in the future, "Chet."

RUTH ANN BALDWIN

"Baldy"

"A flower worthy of paradise"

Archery (3, 4); Treasurer (3).

Ann seems to be one of the quietest Seniors, yet when one really knows her, she is quite different. Her favorite sport is swimming, and on more than one hot summer's afternoon her Ford may be seen at the swimming pool. Ann is planning to enter the Connecticut Women's College in the fall.

PHILIP JOHN BANNACH

"Johnny"

"Silence is deep as Eternity, Speech is shallow as Time."

Spanish Club (3).

A quiet, demure, little boy at times. At times, how true, for when he gets with the rest in Room 14, how things fly! As yet his future is undecided, but whatever your decision may be, "Phil," our best wishes go with you.

ALBERT GETCHELL BARBER

"Al"

"That was he! He played the game."

Exponent, Assistant Manager (3), Business Manager (4); Stage Manager (2, 3, 4); Science Club (1).

"Al" will be much missed next year by the teachers in charge of dramatics, for he has spent much time during the last four years in arranging the scenery on the stage for the many performances presented there. We hear that he was "just the one" to have as business manager of the "Exponent" and also that he "made a good job of it."

KARL HOWARD BARDWELL

"Bardy"

"He is the chap who makes things hum."

Track (4).

Wherever Karl is, there is a rumpus. Yet he must be able to keep still for a few moments at least, for we have heard that he holds a high office in the Order of De Molay.

GERALD BERNARD BATES

"Jerry"

"He who laughs last usually doesn't get the joke."

Class Historian (4).

"Jerry" is a big boy with the deep voice and sunny disposition whose wisecracks and knowing smile are things which those, who are fortunate enough to be intimate with him, greatly enjoy. Miss Childs' English class wouldn't be what it is, if it wasn't for "Jerry's" brilliance. Although "Jerry's" plans are indefinite we all hope that he will go through life, with that unsurpassed smile, as well as he went through school.

DELIA ELIZABETH BELTON

"Betty"

"There is no fire without some smoke."

Filing Certificate; Basketball (2, 3, 4); Year Book Staff; Spanish Club (3); Commercial Club (3, 4); Vice-President Commercial Club (4).

"Betty," that tall, stellar center, is to basketball what mustard is to a "hot dog." Many a game she has helped win for the girls of G. H. S. When possession of the ball was wanted, "Betty" promptly got it,—a valuable player, "Betty." Best-o'-luck, "Betty."

HELEN LOUISE BENJAMIN

"Benjie"

"Nothing is impossible to a willing heart."

Royal Typewriting Award; Basketball, Second Team (3); Commercial Club (3, 4); Spanish Club (3); Pro Merito.

What a secretary Helen is going to make. She has everything, personality, ability and good looks. Helen is a quiet girl—to all those who do not know her intimately. Lots of people like to play tennis with her, but with such a teacher as Helen, who wouldn't play? Success to you, Helen.

CLINTON WILLIAM BERRY

"Clint"

"Still waters some day reach the Cascade."

Science Club (2); Aviation Club (4).

"Clint" is the dark, curly-headed lad with the inclination to be always into some sort of harmless mischief. When he and his pal, Bates, get together there is sure to be some fun. "Clint" has been an active member of the newly organized Aviation Club. The Science Club has its interest for him too, as he regularly attends all the meetings.

ANNIE HELEN BIRCH

"More desirous than fame is friendship."

Commercial Club (3, 4); Chorus (3, 4).

"Annie" is an athletic little Senior who surely knows her basketball. She played on the class teams her four years and set the league on fire with her spectacular play. She is no mean baseball player either and many a boy has watched her, with envy, hit the ball far and wide.

EDITH MABEL BISHOP

"Edie"

"She was of a gentle nature."

"Edie" is one of the quiet Seniors who is gifted with a "Crown of glory." Perhaps her ambition is to be a modiste for she takes sewing and can tread a wicked sewing machine. At present she is interested in Gardner, but has not revealed any future plans.

ROBERT TROST BITTERS

"Bob"

"Write me as one who loves his fellowmen."

Pro Merito; Football (2, 3, 4); Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4, Captain 4); Track (1, 2, 3); Baseball (1, 2, 3, 4); President of Class (1, 4); "The Boob" (3); "The Boule Cabinet" (4); Hi-Y (Treasurer, 2, 3, 4); Glee Club (3); Dramatic Club (3, 4, President 4); Silver G (3, 4).

"Bob" is our red-headed President, an all-round sport, name anything, basketball, football, baseball, or just incidentals. In spite of all this he wants to be an engineer. We assure Ohio Northern they have captured a prize.

EARL HALL BOUTWELL

"Boute"

"Mild — yet he satisfies."

"Pinafore" (2); Band (1, 2, 3, 4); Orchestra (1, 2, 3, 4); Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Assembly Orchestra (4).

Another shy boy! My, we have a lot of them. But Earl's not shy on speed for he can be seen almost any morning taking the corner on two wheels in his Buick. Earl plans to go to the Cleveland Air Races this summer and to Wentworth this fall.

ERNEST BROCKLESBY

"Ern"

"Silence is as deep as eternity."

Baseball, second team (2); Track (1).

"Ern" doesn't have much to say to anyone but he gets there just the same. Although he is quiet, he has a good many friends in and out of school. He says he has no future plans, but anyhow we wish him luck.

CECIL BROWN

"Cecil"

"Be glad and your friends are many."
Band (1).

Although Cecil may seem quiet, he is really full of fun. He is so busy working that he hasn't had much time to devote to school affairs. Nevertheless, his classmates will miss him greatly, for his good nature brightens up the classrooms.

RUTH BROWNELL

"Ruth"

"Her smile is genial and her friendship true."

Pro Merito; Year Book Staff; Orchestra (1, 2, 3); Assembly Orchestra (4); Girl Scouts, Troop V (4), President; Glee Club (1, 2, 3).

Ruth always has a smile and a kind word for everyone, which accounts for her many friends. She has been called quiet, but not by those who really know her. Ruth is a ready participant in any fun. Strangest of all, however, she takes her studying seriously.

WILLIAM EMERSON CALDWELL

"Bub"

"All his faults are such that one loves him still the better for them."

Hockey (1, 4); Exponent (2, 3, 4); Vice President of Class (3); "The Boule Cabinet" (4); Band and Orchestra (1, 2, 3, 4); Dramatic Club (4); Student Council (4).

Everybody knows this quiet (?) little Senior for he has been popular during his high school career. He was recently elected president of the school band. He is also a member of our assembly orchestra where we see him playing away on his clarinet. "Bub" is dramatically inclined (?) for he had a part in the Senior play. Wasn't he clever, though? There is a certain dark-haired Sophomore—but that's for him to tell.

ALICE MAE BRYANT

"Al"

"I like fun and I like jokes
'Bout as well as most the folks."

O. G. A. Shorthand Pin; Royal Certificate; Basketball (1, 2); Captain Class Team (1); Year Book Staff; Commercial Club (3, 4, Treasurer 3, President 4).

"Al" is the girl who always has a serious (?) look on her face. Wherever fun is, "Al" can usually be found. Her pleasing personality and good nature make her a favorite wherever she goes. We know that "Ed" will agree with this. "Al" plans to enter the business world next year.

ROY EDWIN CALL

"Ed"

"He says little but thinks much."

Class Basketball (3).

"Ed" is a quiet fellow and never has much to say. Although you have not heard much about him he has many friends. He was a prominent member of the class basketball tournament in his Junior year.

KATHERINE ELIZABETH BULMAN

"Kay"

"All are not saints who go to church."

Exponent (4); Glee Club (3, 4); Spanish Club (3); Science Club (4).

Everyone knows "Kay," that cheerful person who enlivens dull periods. She is one of the jolliest members of the class, but more than that, she is a friend to everyone. Kay's outside interests have kept her very busy, but she has made many lasting friends here. She plans to return next year and take a post-graduate course.

THELMA ROSAMOND CARPENTER

"Thel"

"Silence is woman's best ornament."

Senior Commercial Club (4).

Thelma is one of the many members of G. H. S. from North Parish. She plans to go to school when she leaves high school and we wish her loads of luck.

NORA MAE BURKHARDT

"Nannie"

"Humor is the spice of life."

Nora is a girl who believes in looking on the sunny side of life. Although she hasn't taken an active part in school activities, she has made a host of friends during her four years here. Nora is very witty and never worries about her studies. As for the future, Nora is as yet undecided.

LOUISE HOWES CARSON

"Kit"

"And what she dares to dream of She dares to do."

Glee Club (1, 2, 3); Exponent (4).

Louise has been one of these girls who always likes school (?). Well, never mind that, "Kit," for we know that you have a big heart. Whether it's to Stoneleigh or Katherine Gibbs School that you go, we know you'll have a good time.

MARY AGNES BURNS

"Mary"

"With a roguish glint in her eyes."

Commercial Club (3, 4); Chorus (3, 4).

Mary has not taken part in many scholastic events although she is known by many of her classmates. Mary is one of those ambitious girls; she wants to go to work when she leaves G. H. S.

EILEEN MARY CAVANAUGH

"Cavie"

"Why can't they all be contented like me?"

Eileen's thoughts are in Orange at present but she still thinks of G. H. S. She has not made up her mind yet what she wants to be, whether a hair dresser or a nurse.

BERNICE ISABEL CHAFFEE

"Bernie"

"The rising blushes which her cheeks o'erspread

Are opening roses in the lily's bed."

Varsity Basketball (3, 4); Year Book Staff; Commercial Club (3, 4); Vice President (3); Silver G Club, Executive Committee (4); Pro Merito.

"Bernie" Chaffee is that blond girl with the disarming smile who has made such a record on the girls' varsity basketball team. "Bernie" is one of those girls whom the boys love to tease to see her blush! She is also a studious person, for she is a member of Pro Merito. She is undecided whether it will be "Hamp" Commercial or Bay Path next year.

JANET MARIE COBB

"Jan"

"Good taste is the flower of good sense."

Pro Merito; Year Book Staff; "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Latin Club (3, 4); Glee Club (3, 4); French Club, Secretary-Treasurer (3); Silver G Club; Exponent (4).

The class of '32 wishes lots of luck to "Jan." We all know she will be a great success in whatever she undertakes. Her charming personality has won her many friends during her high school days. She goes many places in her car but M. S. C. seems to be one of her favorites. She hasn't really decided what she will do next year.

HELEN ALICE CICHY

"Chickie"

"Quiet, but all the more worthy."

Glee Club (3, 4); Commercial Club (3, 4).

Helen is one of the quiet members of the class of '32, although we are sure she has plenty to say to her pal, Rose, for the two are inseparable. Helen has been a member of the Glee Club and Commercial Club. All her classmates wish her luck in her commercial studies.

CHESTER COOK CONANT

"Chet"

"Talking is one of the finer arts."

Hockey (4); Hi-Y (4); Science Club (2, 3); Aviation Club (4).

Noisy all day long is typical of "Chet," but a dull life it would be were there not any like him. If anyone ever heard a great commotion in Room 15, he didn't have to ask who was the cause. He used to be called bashful but seems to have outgrown that stage.

ROBERT EDSON CLARK

"Bob"

"Music is well said to be the speech of angels."

G. H. S. Syncopators (3, 4); High School Orchestra (1, 2); Assembly Orchestra (2, 3, 4); Band (1, 2, 3, 4).

"Bob" is the shy, peace-loving fellow, who does not shout about his success, but accomplishes whatever he sets out to do. During his four years at G. H. S., he has played in all the orchestras at one time or another. What would the Syncopators do, without "Bob's" crooning sax? Bob's plans are undecided, but we feel he will be a success at whatever he undertakes.

DAVID PERRY CONANT

"Dave"

"I would rather make my name than inherit it."

Science Club, Treasurer (2, 3, 4); Archery Club (4); Aviation Club (4).

David, unlike his brother, is seldom heard. He enjoys repairing automobiles and going fishing and hunting. Whenever anyone wishes to know something about autos he can get all the information he wishes from "Dave." We know he will some day be a successful mechanic.

VIRGINIA RUTH CLEVELAND

"Jinny"

"Those who are pleased themselves must always please."

Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Archery (3); "Pinafore" (2).

"Jinny" is one of our tallest girls, who, in spite of her shyness, has won many friends by her charming smile, and mischievousness in the classroom. She is also interested in sports, having gone out for basketball and field hockey. We mustn't forget her scholastic endeavor too, for her name has appeared on the honor roll many times.

ELIZABETH PAULINE CONWAY

"Lib"

"I had indeed the folly to write it, but the wit to keep it to myself."

Elizabeth works untiringly at her studies but still has time to make friends with everyone. "Actions speak louder than words," is the slogan which fits this quiet maiden. Here's hoping you will be as successful after High School as you have been here.

CAROL MAY CLIFFORD

"Clara"

"Her sunny locks hang on her temples like golden fleece."

Royal, Remington Typewriting Awards; "Belle of Barcelona" (1); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Commercial Club (4).

Who doesn't know our own "Clara Bow," Carol? She is the girl with the beautiful hair, who in spite of a natural reserve, has taken an interest in music and belonged to the Glee Club and been in an operetta. Carol has also made a record as a typist, and her fellow classmates wish her the best of luck.

OLLIE MAE COOK

"Ollie"

"She who achieves success does so because she has prepared for it."

Pro Merito; Latin Club (4); Student Council (4).

Ollie is one of those people who believe in being seen and not heard. Ollie is heard in the classrooms though, when it is time to recite. She always knows her lessons and is willing to help anyone less fortunate. Although Ollie has been very quiet, she is a favorite among her classmates and we know she will succeed in whatever she undertakes in the future.

JOHN LAWRENCE CORLISS

"Bozo"

"On with the dance! Let joy be unconfined!"

Exponent (2, 3); Year Book; Treasurer of Class (3); Vice-President of Class (4);
"Rear Car" (2); "Book Week Play" (3); Hi-Y (3, 4); Dramatic Club (3, 4, Vice-President 4); Science Club (3); Archery
Club (President 3); Student Council
(2, 4, Vice-President 4).

This popular Senior is known to about everyone in G. H. S. for his dancing ability. "Bozo" has been prominent in all school affairs, and is well-liked by his classmates.

MARGARET IDA CUTLER

"Buddie"

"Push on — keep moving."

Field Hockey (1, 2, 3); Exponent (2, 3);
Spanish Club (3); Archery (3); Cheer
Leader (4).

"Buddie," as we all know her, has taken much interest in school affairs.
What would we have done without her at the games, for wasn't she one of our cheer leaders? When it comes to Journalism Conventions we understand
"Buddie" was always there.

EARL JOSEPH COUTU

"Earl"

"Rare compound of levity, frolic and fun,
Who relished a joke and rejoiced in a pun."

Earl is that fun-loving person who is a very agreeable companion to those who know him. Earl has not been very active in school affairs, but he has made many friends in G. H. S., and has also found time to work outside of school.

WESLEY WALTER DAME

"Wes"

"He needs no eulogy — he speaks for himself."

Treasurer of Class (4); Hi-Y (4);
Spanish Club (3); Prize Speaking (3,
First Prize); Dramatic Club (4).

"Wes" is that tall Senior who has caused all the girls' hearts to flutter when he talks to them. With his witty sayings and friendly smile, "Wes" has found many a friend, but this year he seems to center his admiration on a certain "little" Senior. Now that's the long and short of it.

EVELYN LOUISE CROSBY

"Evie"

"And as the bright sun glorifies the sky,
So is her face illumined with her eye."

Field Hockey (2, 3); Second Team
Varsity Basketball (3); Exponent (4);
Year Book Staff (4); Prize Speaking
Contest (3); "Pinafore" (2); "Pepita"
(3); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); Dramatic Club (4).

"Evie" is one of those jolly persons who always have a friendly smile for everyone. She brightens up every classroom with her cheery manner. "Evie" is also an orator. Who does not remember her humorous recitation in the prize speaking contest? She has been one of the best-liked members of her class and we all wish her the best of luck.

JOSEPHINE THERESA DANILEWICZ

"Jo"

"Be glad and your friends are many."

Josephine is one of the more quiet girls around school, but we understand that she has been enjoying herself at many outside dances this year. Her future is undecided, but we can be sure it will be a happy one.

HENRY CLEMENT CROSBY

"Henry"

"Speech is reason's brother,
And kingly prerogative of man."

Archery Club (3, 4); Spanish Club (3);
Debating Club (3, 4, President 4);
G. H. S. Aviation Club (4).

Almost everyone knows Henry, our great debater. Henry is full of fun, and brightens up many classes with his witty remarks. He seems to be greatly interested in Washington, D. C. Next-cepas, Henry? Henry is undecided as to what he will do next year.

MORRIS WILLIAM DEPEUW

"Indian"

"Said and done. Done as soon as said."

Exponent (4).

When a discussion is in progress
Morris is sure to be there. He can tell many stories of the happenings in the "shack," just ask him! His school activities have been few, but we can always see him present at our High School games.

ARLINE DOROTHY CUNNINGHAM

"Red"

"Were she perfect, one would admire her more, but love her less."

We have learned that the way to make "Red" happy is to give her a smooth dance floor, a snappy orchestra, and a wonderful dancer. Her idea of Heaven is to dress all day and dance all night. She plans to study to be a technician at Mercey Hospital in Springfield.

ESTELLA ELIZABETH DOREY

"Betty"

"Talking is one of the fine arts."

"Betty" came to us from Springfield during her Senior year. Since then she and Sarah have played all the jokes they can. Betty hasn't been in many school affairs, but has made many friends nevertheless. We know she'll make a perfect nurse, as she's going in training at Northampton next year.

ANNA MAY DRUGAN

"Ann"

"Happy am I; from care I'm free.
Why aren't they all contented like me?"

Last fall "Ann" entered G. H. S. like a ray of sunshine, and she has remained the same ever since. In her too-short year with us she has made a great many friends. Art and men hold "Ann's" interest. She plans to go to New York School of Design to study. Bon voyage, "Ann"!

ROBERT BERARD EDES

"Bob"

"Words are women, deeds are men."

Class Basketball (2).

"Bob" started his career in the class of '31 but soon realized his mistake. He left school and later returned to our class. He is the quiet type and is not often heard from, but he has made many friends and we wish him the best of luck.

ELIZABETH DONOVAN DUNNIGAN

"Betty"

"Love is the soul of a gay Irishman."

Exponent (4); Senior Year Book Staff; "Pinafore" (2); "Pepita" (3); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); Dramatic Club (3, 4); Latin Club (3, 4, President 4); Pro Merito.

"Betty" is a thin slip of girl who has a huge amount of tact and patience, a girl with a quiet disposition who tries to acquire a severe mien by putting on dark-rimmed glasses and ensconcing herself behind piles of Vergil, Cicero, etc., a girl who bubbles over with humor and who is always thoughtful of other people.

HELEN ELLIS

"Squeaky"

"Let him who loves me, follow me."

Pro Merito; Manager Girls' Basketball (4); Hockey (1, 2, 3, 4); Year Book Staff; Class Secretary (1, 4); Archery (3, 4, Treasurer 4); Latin, Secretary (3); Glee Club.

Who can forget Helen and her waffle parties? She attended all the games. She has helped the girls a great deal in their athletics and she will be greatly missed when basketball season comes around. But think of the break Wheaton is getting. She expects to attend there next year and take up some phase of chemistry.

MARGARET KATHRYN DWYER

"Peg"

"A heart ever new
To all always open
To all always true."

Spanish Club (3); Commercial Club (4); Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4).

Margaret is one of the few quiet girls in our class, and sometimes she isn't so quiet. However, the quiet people make the best friends and "Peg" certainly has plenty of them. "Peg" plans to go with her sister to Becker College. We know she'll succeed.

JAMES FAILLA

"Jimmy"

"To say nothing is the safest creed."

Football (2).

"Jimmy's" ski-jumping ability has won him great fame. He has represented the "green and white" in many out-of-town meets. In his Senior year he won the "John Haigis Cup" for the longest standing jump. He is undecided about his future but we know he will succeed.

MARY ELLEN DWYER

"Mary"

"To be merry best becomes you."

Spanish Club (3); Chorus (1, 2, 3, 4); Junior Prize Speaking (3).

Mary is such a comfortable person to have around—with her deep, convincing chuckle, hearty good nature and dependability. Mary and Margaret are inseparable. Mary is very fond of public speaking and gym—especially big Indian clubs. She plans to go to Becker College.

MARGARET THERESA FELLOWS

"Peggy"

"The happiest heart that ever beat was in some quiet breast."

"Peggy" is one of the quiet type that manages to get to school late nearly every morning. She is an ambitious person but has much of her time taken up doing housekeeping. "Peggy" has not decided on her future yet, but she would like to be a nurse.

HARRY LINWOOD DYER

"Harry"

"Words are women; deeds are men."

Harry came to us in our Junior year from Sanderson Academy. He played basketball his Junior year. Harry seems to think women are folly. Next year he plans to enter the business world where we know he'll succeed.

WALTER MATTHEW FINN

"Walter"

"We grant although he had much wit, he was very shy of using it."

Science Club (2).

"Red's" big ambition is to become a painter. He has been employed by the Recorder office since he's been in high school. In his Junior year he joined the Science Club to see if he could change the color of his hair. It evidently didn't work for he soon gave it up. Can you imagine a "painter's devil" with red hair?

CHARLES NEWTON FOSTER

"Charles"

"A man passes for that he is worth."

Exponent (3); Commercial Club (3).

We have had Charles in our midst for four years and anyone who doesn't know him would think he is quiet, but have you ever been in any of his classes? No! Then you can't judge. Charles intends to work next year.

GEORGE GORDON GILMAN

"Beans"

"The day is always his who works in it with serenity and great aims."

Exponent (3, 4); High School Orchestra (1, 2, 3, 4); Spanish Club (3); Camera Club (2); Science Club (3, 4); Vice-President (4); Debating Club (3, 4); Treasurer (4).

George is that carefree sort of boy who goes striding down the corridor swinging his bag of books and seems so aloof from the rest of us. He has a good and merry heart; is always willing to help anyone; and if there's an algebra problem to be done, George always knows the answer.

VIRGINIA ALBERTA FREESE

"Jinnie"

"A rosy merry maiden she."

Field Hockey (3, 4).

"Jinnie" has been with us only two years, but in that time all who know her have grown to admire her. Have you ever heard of those exciting parties she gives? They're scrumptious! Virginia plans to work next year.

HEATHER EMILY GLASLE

"Boots"

"Basketball's the world, and all the world's a basketball."

Girl's Varsity Basketball Team (2, 3, 4, Captain 4); Dance Committee (4); Chorus of "Belle of Barcelona," (2); "Pinafore" (2); "Pepita" (3); Archery Club (Secretary 4); Science Club (4); Spanish Club (3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4).

Here's to our little Scotch basketball captain! She has led her team to success in many a game, and plays tricky and fast basketball. "Boots" can pile up a mean score in archery too, as well as decorate for Senior dances. She plans to be a teacher, studying further at Fitchburg Normal.

ARTHUR JOSEPH FREGEAU

"Art"

"Here's to the boy who's not afraid."

Football (1, 2, 3); Basketball (1, 2, 3); Track (2, 3); Assistant Stage Manager (2); Band (1); Commercial Club (2); Aviation Club (4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3).

"Art" is that tall, stalwart lad whom you see in the corridors every day. He is a helping friend and enjoys (?) studying. He has been an active member in the Aviation Club, newly formed this year, and after working a year he intends to enter an Aviation School.

ERNEST GOLDSTEIN

"Ernie"

"Wit is the salt of conversation, not the food."

Exponent (3, 4); Dance Committee (4); "The Boule Cabinet" (4); Dramatic Club (4).

"Ernie" came to G. H. S. from Wilbraham Academy. Without him, we do not know how the "Exponent" Scandal sheet could have survived, all the news appearing to be in "Ernie's" hands. He is perfectly at ease on the stage, as anywhere, and everyone likes to see him in our school plays. "Rae" is the best of inspirations, according to "Ernie"!

RUTH BARBARA GAINES

"Ruth"

"Her heart is like a garden fair."

Ruth is one of our quiet girls but she is one of those upon whom you can always depend. Ruth is undecided as to what she will do next year but we know she will succeed in whatever she attempts and we wish her the best of luck.

WALTER ELWOOD GRANT

"Shorty"

"Full pleasant and amiable."

"Pinafore" (2); "Pepita" (3); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Glee Club (2, 3).

Walter is our "basso profundo" who sings the scary songs in the operettas. He has been in three of them while in high school, and who will forget him as "Togo" in "Miss Cherryblossom"? Walter looks quite swagger when graced by a derby and spats to call on a certain young Senior by the name of — ?

LOUISE FANNIE GALBRAITH

"Shrimp"

"A little girl am I, but yet I'm not too small."

Pro Merito; Exponent (2, 3); Spanish Club (3); Debating Club (3).

Louise is the "baby" of the class but can that girl do English. Her poems are great! It was Louise's poem that was flashed on the Garden screen in her Freshman year! Louise is planning to attend M. S. C.

GUY MANNING GRAY

"Frail"

"Oh, that this too solid flesh would melt!"

Latin Club (3); Second Team Football (3, 4).

What would we do without Guy around to humor us in some of our depressing moods! He played football for G. H. S. his Junior and Senior years, but did not go in for the other sports. When classes get dull, Guy is always on hand to brighten them up with some brilliant remark or comical action.

CATHERINE ELIZABETH GRIFFIN
"Caddy"

"Her very frowns are fairer far,
Than smiles of other maidens are."
Commercial Club (3, 4).

"Caddy" is one of our quiet girls but we have discovered that she is a true friend and not always so quiet either. "Caddy" is an active member of the Commercial Club and has played class basketball for three years. She always has a cheery word and smile for everyone. "Caddy" plans to enter Northampton Commercial next year and we all know she'll be a great success.

JAMES JOSEPH GRIFFIN
"Jim"

"Happy am I, from care I'm free,
Why aren't they all contented like me."
Golf (3, 4); Science Club (3).

"Jim" is one of our quiet but cheerful classmates. Although "Jim" hasn't been very active in school affairs he was elected Captain of the Golf Team his Senior Year. "Jim" has made a host of friends during his four years at G. H. S. and we all wish him the best of luck.

GWENDOLYN IRENE GROCE
"Gwen"

"She may be little — but oh, my!"

Year Book Staff; "Belle of Barcelona" (1); "Pepita" (3); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Glee Club (1, 4); Dramatic Club (3, 4); Science Club (4).

"Gwen" has the distinction of being one of the tallest (?) girls of the Senior Class. She always has a witty and ready answer to anything. If anyone would like to know how to dance ask "Gwen," she knows. We all hope for "Gwen's" success in New York next year where she plans to study dancing.

ZETTA LILLIAN HAMILTON
"Zetta"

"An ounce of mirth is worth a pound of sorrow."

Zetta is known chiefly for her carefree disposition, and her ability to take things as they come. In fact, she is a decided optimist and possesses that enviable quality, the ability to see the bright side of life. We all wish Zetta the best of luck in whatever she undertakes.

MARSHALL FRANCIS HAMMOND
"Marshall"

"Young fellows will be young fellows."

Although G. H. S. didn't claim Marshall until his Senior year, everyone knows him and his ready friendship. He keeps a plentiful supply of conversation and gum in Room 16 every morning before school. Marshall has not been very active in class activities, but he is a friend to all. His future plans are undecided.

RUTH ESTHER HAMMOND
"Red"

"A smile will go a long, long way."

"Pepita" (3); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Junior Commercial Club (3); Dramatic Club (3, 4); Chorus (3, 4).

When you hear a sudden outburst of laughter you know "Red" is around the corner. "Red" has been an active member of the Dramatic Club and has played on the class basketball teams. "Red" plans to enter Springfield Hospital next year. Who would kick about being ill with a nurse around like her with that red hair and ever-ready smile?

ROBERT JAMES HARPER
"Bob"

"And good luck go with you."

Science Club (3, 4); French Club (3); Debating Club (4); Hi-Y (4).

Although "Bob" has been active in the clubs of G. H. S. he is rather a quiet boy who is usually seen and not heard. We sometimes get a glimpse of him dashing through town in his "auto" with a black "French tam" on the back of his head. "Bob" intends to study Forestry next year.

ELIZABETH HARRIS
"Betty"

"Stay as you are, and be loved forever."

Orchestra (1); Band (1, 2); Archery (3).

"Betty" is one of the sweetest girls in G. H. S. She is seldom seen anywhere without Ruth. "Betty" has a passion for working hard in art (?). She is as yet undecided about the future, but whatever she does her personality will make it impossible for her not to succeed.

RUTH BERNICE HASTINGS
"Ruth"

"Smile and the world smiles with you."

Class basketball (3).

Ruth is a happy-go-lucky girl who is seen at all the gatherings of our school. She is everyone's pal, and is well liked by all her classmates. In whatever the future holds for her, G. H. S. wishes her success and happiness.

RUTH ELIZABETH HOWARD
"Rudy"

"It is the quiet worker who succeeds."

Pro Merito; Band (1, 2, 3, 4); Archery (3).

Ruth is "Betty's" other half. Although she is quiet she has many friends who love and trust her. Ruth seems to like Chemistry and French — at least by the way she studies both. Ruth intends to enter Business College next year.

DEBORAH HUNT

"Deb"

"Her friends range on left and right."

Basketball, Second Team (4); Student Council (3); Vice-President Class (4); "Belle of Barcelona" (1); "The Boob" (3); "Two Crooks and a Lady" (3); "The Boule Cabinet" (4); Junior Prize Speaking (3); Dramatic Club (2, 3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); G. H. S. Orchestra (2, 3, 4); Assembly Orchestra (3, 4); Cheer Leader (4); Silver G (3, 4). Year Book Staff.

"Deb" is that popular Senior who, as you can see, is very active in class work. Her winning personality has gained many friends for her. She is talented in music and dramatics. "Deb" is seen at all the dances, games, and in the plays. Success is bound to follow her at Barnard (Columbia) College next year.

JAMES MILTON HURLBURT

"Iggy"

"Every inch a man, to say nothing of his feet."

Track (1, 2, 3); Football (2); Basketball (2, 3).

James is the boy with the beautiful figure, and what an athlete! Basketball is his game and he surely can play it. He was also a very good track and baseball man. Full of humor and wit, "Jimmie" is bound to make good.

RUTH MILDRED HUTCHINSON

"Millie"

"Ah, such a voice!"

Pro Merito; Chorus (3, 4).

Mildred is a singer, and has she a voice! A little, dark, very good looking girl, with deep piercing eyes, she is smart with plenty of ambition. She has made the Pro Merito which is a great achievement. Nursing is her ambition and we all hope she makes good.

RACHEL CHARLOTTE JELLYMAN

"Rae"

"She is good as she is fair —
To know her is to love her."

"Rae" is the girl with a smile and a "hello" for everybody. She came to G. H. S. in her Sophomore year from Brattleboro High and liked Greenfield so well that she decided to stay. In her Senior year, she met that "certain one" and we certainly see her with him constantly. "Rae" plans to go into training as a nurse.

FRANCIS CHARLES JOHNSON

"Bus"

"A closed mouth catches no flies."

Band (1, 2, 3, 4); Orchestra (4); Spanish Club (3); Latin Club (3, 4).

Francis Johnson is a likeable fellow, full of fun and mischief. A good looking chap full of ambition, he has an ear for music. Francis is going to take entrance exams for Harvard this June. We hope he makes it and wish him a lot of success to go with that Harvard education.

MADELINE AGNES JOHNSON

"Madeline"

"So sweet the blush of bashfulness."

Commercial (3); Exponent (4).

Blond, five feet four inches of energy and pep make up our little friend Madeline. She has a sweet lovable smile and one of those dispositions which makes rainy days seem like heaven. Her chief ambition, just at present, is to be a hair dresser. Judging from her own coiffure, we know she will be a good one.

JOSEPH ARTHUR JUBB

"Sonny"

"He was a valiant youth and his face like the face of the morning."

Gladdened the earth with its light, and ripened thought into action."

Vice-President of Class (2); Baseball (2); Football (2, 3, 4).

G. H. S. loses a very good football player when "Sonny" goes on his way. He plans to attend Bay Path in Springfield if he can, and learn to be a Sales Manager. With that cheerful smile he's bound to succeed!

AUGUSTINE KAMIENSKI

"Gus"

"So nigh is grandeur to our dust,
So near is God to man,
When duty whispers low, 'Thou must,'
The youth replies, 'I can.'"

Year Book Staff; Exponent Staff (2, 3); Prize Speaking Contest (3); Debating Club (3, 4); Hi-Y (3, 4, Vice-President 4).

Augustine has been very active in the printing and art classes. He has made many attractive cuts for the Exponent and written poems and mottoes. Speech-making is an interesting subject to him also. After graduation he plans to follow printing in which he is so interested.

WILHELMINA AGNES KELLY

"Bubbles"

"Fair was she to behold, that maiden of seventeen summers."

Exponent (2, 3, 4).

"Bubbles," who always has a pleasant smile and a cheerful word for everyone, is planning to go way out to Saint Louis, Missouri, to a school for dietetics next year. We'll all miss you, "Bubbles," and wish you success.

ELEANOR MacARTHUR KING

"Smiles"

"The weapon with which she conquered all obstacles was patience, a necessary ingredient of genius."

"Belle of Barcelona" (1); "H. M. S. Pinatore" (2); "Pepita" (3); Science Club (3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Orchestra (1, 2, 3, 4); Scouts, Chairman of Program Committee (3, 4).

Eleanor is one of the quiet but active members of the Senior class, and especially in the school's musical organizations where she is always to be seen. She plans to be a Domestic Science teacher and hopes to go to Framingham next year.

KATHRYN ANN KING

"Kay"

"High flights she had and wit at will,
And so her tongue lay seldom still."

Exponent Staff (2, 3, 4); Year Book Staff (4); Glee Club (2, 3, 4); Science Club (3, 4); Archery Club (3).

Well liked by everyone, "Kay" will be missed by many of her classmates. She is always busy making friends. Remember those Journalism conventions, "Kay"? Next year will see her at "The Elms" in Chicopee.

MARGERY RITA KING

"Marge"

"Let's have hope, and we will gain success."

Margery is one of those well-known Seniors who are popular with the underclassmen as well as their own. Much of her time is spent at the Gables, and, with dancing her hobby, we can easily believe this. For quite some time now she has been interested in Easthampton. She is undecided about the future, but we wish her luck in everything.

HELEN CONSTANCE KOLDIS

"Helen"

"Nothing is worth doing, unless it is worth doing well."

Helen is one of the more quiet girls around school, and if you should ask anyone, you would learn that that is a gift! She hasn't entered many school affairs, but wherever she goes and whatever she does we hope she will remember G. H. S.

EFFIE CATHERINE KOPEC

"Skeezix"

"Good things are never done in a hurry."

Effie is a bright student amongst our many Millers Falls friends. She has been for four years planning for a place in the world of business. Although she is somewhat shy, she knows many of her classmates, though only a few may know her. She has made good work of her commercial course and hopes to become a private secretary.

JACK KRAMER

"Jacky"

"Build successful business on solid financial bases."

Cheer Leader (4); Circulation Manager of Exponent (4); Assembly Orchestra (1, 2, 3); Hi-Y Club; Spanish Club; Glee Club (1, 2); Science Club (3); Silver G.

Jack is one of those fellows who is always solving business problems. His business view-point is payment in advance, no installments, and Jack makes his ideas heard. You have undoubtedly heard him argue; he sticks right by his ideas. He plans to go away to some engineering school.

EVELYN MARGUERITE MARY KRATZ

"Evie"

"Think twice before you speak once."

Pro Merito; Exponent Staff (2, 3, 4); Year Book Staff; Chorus; "Belle of Barcelona"; Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Silver G.

One of the quietest young ladies of our class is Evelyn Kratz. From the quotation, you can imagine seeing her getting up to recite in class and presenting her answer in a decisive, well planned manner. Evelyn desires to become a dietitian through further study.

ROSE ELEANOR KROL

"Rose"

"Zealous, yet modest."

Commercial Club (4); Glee Club (3, 4).

Throughout Rose's career in G. H. S. she has been very ambitious and determined in whatever she has attempted. She is very quiet and modest yet most obliging to those who at any time may ask a favor of her. Rose has not definitely decided where she is going next year, but we all wish her luck.

RICHARD ALVAN KULYA

"Dick"

"Patient of toil."

Exponent (3, 4); Band (1, 2, 3, 4); "The Boule Cabinet"; Orchestra (1, 2, 3, 4); Librarian (4); Assembly Orchestra (4); Spanish Club (3); Science Club (3, 4, Treasurer 4); Debating Club (3, 4); Aviation Club (4); Dramatic Club (4).

No one in G. H. S. works harder than Richard who is at the same time ready to help when asked. Almost anytime he may be found assorting music in the auditorium, for he is now secretary-librarian of the orchestra. He is a friend to everyone and a true one at that. To be a chemical engineer is Richard's ambition and we're sure he'll succeed, if he works as hard at Reusselaer.

STANLEY WALTER LAHOSKY

"Lapine"

"Here, there and everywhere."

"Stan" is a boy who is heard about more than seen in the corridors of G. H. S. Nevertheless, he is liked by all despite his quietness. While in high school he has been employed as a messenger by the Western Union. This perhaps accounts for his not being seen. "Stan" does not know what he is to do next year, but here's to your success in whatever you may undertake.

DOROTHY MAY LAIDLEY

"Dot"

"Serene amidst alarms."

Year Book Committee; Glee Club (3, 4).

"Dot" is very quiet and modest, but at the same time she's been very active in school as well as outside. She plays the organ most efficiently; for this alone G. H. S. should be very proud of her. "Dot" intends to go in training for a nurse next year. What sweeter and happier girl could be a nurse?

EDWARD JAMES LALOR

"Eddie"

"The mildest manners with the bravest mind."

Football (1, 2, 3, 4); Track (2); Baseball (1, 2, 3, 4); Basketball (4); Hockey (1, 2, 3); Year Book Committee; President of Class (3); President of Student Council (4); Senior Dance Committee; Hi-Y (2, 3, 4, President 4); Silver G Club (3, 4).

Who in G. H. S. doesn't know "Eddie," for he is everyone's favorite. His smile and very droll manner have won many friends for him. Next year "Eddie" intends to go to Deerfield Academy, and we're sure that on the gridiron, diamond and basketball court he will win as many athletic honors as in G. H. S.

HELEN ALICE LAMB

"Helen"

"Argue, argue, early and late, if a line were crooked, she'd argue it straight."

Commercial Club (3, 4); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4).

Helen is that hard-working girl from Room 17, whose hobby is walking. Helen is interested in her work, which is in the Commercial line. Someday she will make some lucky person a good stenographer. She is undecided about her future, but whatever she undertakes G. H. S. wishes her the best of success.

MARIE EVELYN LEARNARD

"Marie"

"Dear lovely bowers of innocence and ease."

Commercial Club (3, 4); Pro Merito.

Marie is one of the quiet members of G. H. S., but throughout her high school career she has made and kept many friends. She is a member of the Pro Merito Society, but is undecided what she will do next year. We wish her the best of luck in whatever she undertakes.

LOUISE BELYEA LILLY

"Betty"

"Happy-go-lucky, fair and free, nothing there is that bothers me."

Basketball, Class Team (1, 2, 3, 4); Commercial Club (3, 4); High School Girl Scouts (4).

"Betty" has had a host of friends in G. H. S. Her cheery smile brightened many a gloomy morning and lightened many a downcast mind. "Betty" is one of our athletes. She is undecided about her future, but says that she is going to keep the home fires burning. What does she mean?

FRANCIS WILSON LINCOLN

"Linc"

"In framing an artist, Art hath thus decreed.

To make some good, but others to exceed."

Hi-Y (4); Year Book Staff.

Francis is the artist of the Senior Class. Someday we will read how he is another "Michael Angelo." He has been an all round good sport. Many times we have seen his name on the Honor Roll. Francis expects to attend the "National Academy of Design," in New York City next year. Keep up your good work, Francis.

VIOLET WENONAH LONGSTREET

"Vi"

"Nothing is worth doing unless it is done well."

Pro Merito; "Pepita" (3); Orchestra (1, 2, 3, 4); Latin Club (3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Year Book Staff.

Wenonah is one of our quiet girls in G. H. S. She always has her lessons, and she appears in the Pro Merito Society for her reward. Wenonah has gained a host of friends during her high school career. She is planning to enter Westfield Normal next year.

ANNA PATRICIA LOONEY

"Ann"

"The world is a folly for those who think."

Pro Merito; Class Basketball (2); Exponent (2); Latin Club (3, 4); Archery Club (4); Glee Club (3, 4).

Anna is one bashful girl who is worthy of a great deal of praise, for between her clubs and sports she has kept her school work up to a Pro Merito grade, beside having her fling at a little fun (especially at banquets in the Cafeteria). Anna is always ready with a helping hand. She is undecided as regards the future, but best of luck, Anna.

DOROTHY EVELYN LOVELL

"Dot"

"The mildest manners and the gentlest heart."

Exponent (3).

"Dot" is one of those quiet girls in school, who never says much, but seems to be deep in thought. We wonder what she is thinking about but whatever it is we are sure it is something good. "Dot" served on the Exponent staff last year and helped our exchanges greatly. She has no definite plans for the future.

FRED LAMONT LOVELL

"Fred"

"The world knows little of its greatest men."

Fred is that shy fellow who is usually seen hurrying about from class to class never stopping on the way. His chief accomplishment is silence, but don't forget, Fred, there are some very successful men in life who are not talkative. Fred has not determined, or revealed to us, what work he will take up.

WILLIAM DEXTER LUEY

"Bill"

"Leave us leisure to be good."

Hockey (2, 3, 4).

"Bill" can usually be seen running to school in the morning, struggling to reach his home room before the eight-fifteen bell rings. "Bill" showed us all up by becoming one of G. H. S. hockey stars, but it seems his ambitions center around science. He is always inventing something or other with his pal, "Bud." "Bill" hasn't any plans for the future as yet, although he is thinking about Bay Path.

GRACE MAY MacDONALD
"Mac"

"Her heart was in her work."

Student Council (2, 3); Vice-President of Class (3); Senior Dance Committee; Archery, Vice-President (3, 4); Girls Varsity Basketball (2, 3, 4); Archery Team (3); Field Hockey (3, 4).

"Mac" is a very cheerful lady who believes in looking on the sunny side of life, but some mornings we have seen her rushing to school in a very worried manner. By the way she just loves sports; but what isn't there she isn't interested in? Because of this interest we feel sure "Mac" is to be a success in life. She plans to attend Oberlin College.

KATHLEEN MARY McAULIFFE
"Kay"

"Whose little body lodged a great mind."

"Kay" is that little, well-dressed brunette in Room 17 who is invariably studying French with a certain classmate—the first thing every morning. She is planning on Fitchburg Normal next year—probably to become a French (?) teacher. May Fortune always smile on you, "Kay."

STANLEY CHESTER MALKAVITZ
"Stan"

"Here I stand; I can do no otherwise."

Football (1, 3); Basketball (3); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4).

"Stan" is one of our happy-go-lucky fellows who likes dancing as well as anything else. If you don't believe it ask some of the girls and they will tell you what they know about him. We believe that "Stan" is interested in Rensselaer.

JAMES KELLY MCCAIN
"Jimmy"

"A pound of pluck is worth a ton of luck."

Track (1, 2); Football (2, 3); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3); Year Book Committee; Hi-Y (3, 4); Delegate Hi-Y Conference (4); Aviation Club (4).

Jimmy is the Algebra shark of Room 17. Every morning it's "Jimmy, got your Algebra done?" and the usual "Sure." He is always good-natured and ready to give assistance where it is needed. Jimmy is planning on Hampton College next year.

LILLIAN ALICE MARKWELL
"Al"

"Love is like a ghost, which everybody talks about and few have seen."

We see by the paper that "Al" is carried away with mathematics, a subject in school that many of the students take but don't find the same as she. She has always taken to Math although some might think differently. Oh yes!! Don't let this bother you for we must have our fun.

DORIS GRACE MCCARTHY
"Dot"

"Her friends—they are many,
Her foes—are there any?"

O. G. A. Certificate.

"Dot" can always be depended upon for a cheery smile, although she may have a "stack" of last night's homework to do. "Dot" is often seen running around in a cute "Chevy" roadster—the B. F.'s. She is undecided just what to do next year, but we hope she'll never forget her friends in G. H. S.

MARJORIE LILLIAN MAYHAM
"Marge"

"Self-reverence, self-knowledge, self-control."

"Marge" is a girl who never does much talking, but her pleasant smile has won many friends for her. We have learned that swimming and dancing are her pastimes, and whenever there is a social at North Parish, "Marge" is usually there. Whatever your future undertakings may be, "Marge," we wish you success.

RONALD LYNDON McCLOUD
"Ronnie"

"I learnt life from the poets."

Pro Merito; Exponent Staff (2); Glee Club (3, 4); Delta Rho Club (3, 4); Winner in Christmas Prize Story Contest (3).

Ronald is the boy with the big smile for everyone. He has worked quietly yet zealously during his high school career. At the end of his Junior year he deserted us for Powers Institute but came back to finish up the last half of '32. Later "Ronnie" intends to study at Columbia University.

MARION ISABELL MAYNARD
"Izzy"

"Happy am I, from care am I free."

Basketball (4); Captain of Girls' Hockey (4); Spanish Club (2, 3); Commercial Club (3, 4, Treasurer 4); Year Book Staff.

Marion is that snappy Senior always strolling about with a tennis racket under her arm and hailing her friends with a cheery "hello." She has been an active member of the Commercial Club this year and her ambition is to continue in this field of work. What a fine stenographer she will make, if she doesn't play hookey in order to play tennis!

SARAH ALMIRA MCKENNEY
"Sarah"

"Ask me no questions, I'll tell you no fibs."

Basketball (3, 4); Latin Club (3); Archery Club (3, 4); Orchestra (3).

Sarah is the little girl with the big sense of humor. Every one knows her as the flashy little side-center on the girls' varsity basketball team. Sarah is always chewing gum, but we have noticed that she never carries any spare with her. Sarah is heading for a "Physical Ed" school next year.

WILLIAM NORWOOD McLINTOCK
"Will"

"Good things come in small packages."

"Will" is always quiet in Room 17—but Room 17 isn't very large—and, of course, Miss Hamilton's always present. He plays basketball and soccerball and is he good?—ask those who have seen him in action. "Will" is undecided as to the future, but his friends in G. H. S. certainly hope he will find something to do, worthy of his ability.

JULIA CHRISTINE MERZ

"Bud"

"Her heart is like a garden fair
Where many pleasant blossoms grow."
Band (2, 3, 4); Exponent (4).

Who doesn't know "Bud," the smiling girl who plays a clarinet in the band? She can be seen most any summer day riding around in that green car. Every one thought that "Bud" would get lonesome after Paul graduated in the class of '31, but she didn't. She plans to enter Becker College next year.

WILLIAM KNEALE METCALF

"Bill"

"My kingdom for a science book."
Hi-Y (4).

"Bill" came to us from Palmer in his Senior year, and he has made a host of friends. If you want to know anything about chemistry just ask him. "Bill" has also distinguished himself in other classes with his wit and humor. He has not decided what college he wants to go to but intends to work in his father's welding shop for a while.

OLGA BEVERLY METELICA

"Flossie"

"She is gentle; she is shy
But there is mischief in her eye."

Class Basketball (3, 4); Girls' Hockey Team (4); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Chorus (3, 4); Archery Club (4).

Olga is always willing to help wherever she can. She did not take part in many school activities until her Senior year. "Flossie" was one of those charming dancing "Geisha" girls in "Miss Cherryblossom." She plans to enter some Physical Education School next year.

MARTEIL RIDLEY METZLER

"Teil"

"She says little but thinks much."

"Teil" says she hasn't done anything outside of studying since she came to G. H. S. from Bellows Falls, but we know she has made many friends. "Teil" plans to enter some commercial school next year.

JOSEPH PAUL MISKINIS

"Mystery"

"A mighty hunter; and his prey is woman."

Hockey (3, 4); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Debating Club (4).

"Joe," or otherwise "Mystery," was contented to stay in the rear for two years and then in his Junior year he became a social lion. Perhaps this was due to wonderful playing on the hockey team for two years. He can be seen quite often with a certain "Freshman." "Mystery" plans to enter Northeastern next year.

MARION MARGARET MISKUNAS

"Monnie"

"On with the dance."

"Monnie's" hobby is dancing but her most important one seems to concern "Hamp." Though she has not been active in school affairs we are glad to have had her with us. Her plans for next year have not been made. Good luck, "Monnie"!

KATHERINE AGNES MOLESKI

"Kay"

"Nothing great was ever achieved without ambition."

Varsity Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Commercial Club (4).

"Kay" is that happy-go-lucky girl who is such a good basketball player. When she hasn't been playing basketball she has found time to belong to the Commercial Club. "Kay" has not made any plans for next year, but whatever she undertakes we wish her the best of luck.

NEOLA KATHRYN MORRIS

"Lo"

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Manager Basketball (1); Basketball (2, 3); Pro Merito; Commercial Club (3, 4).

"Lo" is that little rascal who hails from Room 17. Between her mischief-making and basketball playing she has become a Pro Merito member. We wish you loads of luck next year, "Lo."

ARLENE ETHEL MURLEY

"Ar"

"She may be little—but, oh my!"

Pro Merito; Commercial Club (3, 4); Class Basketball (3).

Arlene might be known as a French doll, for with those little curls, she certainly typifies one. She has never entered many school activities, but Commercial Club has kept her busy. During her high school days she and "Ruth" have been inseparable pals. May your part in future life be worth while, "Ar."

JEANETTE NASH

"Jean"

"She wasn't so bad, so to say — only mischievous."

Commercial Club (3); Archery (3).

Jeanette is the "flash" around school, the one you hear but you don't very often see. Never mind, Jeanette, though we did not often see you we liked you a lot. Jeanette plans to train at Dickinson Hospital in "Ifamp" next year.

GENEVIEVE MARION OLSZEWSKI

"Shrimp"

"Where there's a smile there's a friend."

"Belle of Barcelona" (1); "Pinafore" (2); "Pepita" (3); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Commercial Club (3, 4).

Genevieve is one of our pleasant Seniors whom we can't help but make friends with. No one has ever seen her when she has not had that friendly smile which made her so many friends in G. H. S. Genevieve has been very active in dramatics during her four years in High School appearing in every operetta during her stay here.

MAVERETTE AMABEL NEWCOMB

"May"

"She is gentle; she is shy."

Pro Merito; Glee Club (1, 2, 3).

Maverette is one of the quiet, industrious girls of the class. Every morning she arrives on the bus from Leyden Road and hastily enters dear G. H. S. to begin her daily grind. Because of the distance between her home and our school, we haven't heard much about Maverette, but we all wish her success in the future.

JESSIE ELIZABETH OSTROSKI

"Yez"

"Oh Jessie fair, beyond compare!
I'll make a garland of thy hair!"

Glee Club.

If you should see a young girl, always smiling and cheerful, under a bright mop of fine hair, take a second look. Perhaps it is Jessie. We hear she isn't always the "quiet" girl one might consider her, but she is a girl of plenty of pep, vim, vigor, and popularity. We most certainly wish you success in your future life, Jessie.

JENNIE HEDWIG NIEDZWIEDZ

"Peewee"

"Friendliness is a virtue of success."

Royal Typewriting Certificate; Glee Club (2, 3).

Jennie is one of our quiet, curly-haired friends from Millers. She has made quite a name for herself in commercial circles by her proficiency in typewriting and spelling. She has not entered into many outside activities while in school, but her pleasing personality will be remembered by those who have come into contact with her in her classes.

JOSIE MARY PANKIEVICH

"Joe"

"Virtue alone is happiness below."

Commercial Club (3, 4).

Josie is a Senior girl who seems to keep things pretty much to herself. What do you think about life in general, Josie? Do you tell it all to your typewriter? How G. H. S. will miss such dependable and studious girls as you, next year! Yet how much the world gains when you enter it!

DWIGHT LAWRENCE NORWOOD

"Babe"

"High flights he had and wit at will
And so his tongue lay seldom still."

Dwight, known among the Seniors as Dwight Lawrence Norwood, Junior, is one of the loudest Seniors in high school. He has the honor of being one of the youngest members of the Senior class. Dwight is very brilliant and would achieve much if he would place his studies first. Dwight is undecided as to the future.

MARTHA ELLEN PECK

"Peckie"

"A good sport is always to be sought."

Pro Merito; Exponent Staff (4); Year Book Staff; Glee Club (3); Latin Club (3, 4); Girl Scouts (4).

Ellen, that studious girl from Rowe, is one of the best sports the Class of 1932 has produced. She will always try something once, and usually gets there, too. Witness her Pro Merito and High Scholarship record! We most certainly hope and confidently expect that she will succeed as well at Mount Holyoke next year. Here's to you, "Peckie"!

PHILIP JOHN NORWOOD

"Phil"

"Men of few words are the best men."

"Phil" is the greater of the famed Norwood brothers. Everyone has seen him doing his part putting up scenery on the stage. He was always good in helping out the high school in this way and that is why everything has gone smoothly under his management. You have probably seen him down street washing windows, and let us tell you he's a good man to have around. In every way "Phil" is that quiet helpful young gentleman with that shy smile.

ALTHEA ELIZABETH PERSONS

"Al"

"My wealth is health and perfect ease."

"Belle of Barcelona" (2); Glee Club (1); Orchestra (1); Archery (3).

If you are looking for a versatile, "perfect 36," Senior girl, here you are. Althea is the picture of health (did you find it at the toboggan chute, "Al"?), attractive in personality, and talented in dramatics. We hear rumors that she is the much talked of Senior girl who is always seen with a certain Sophomore boy. Is that true, "Al"?

GEORGE ALDEN PETERS
"Pete"

"Trusty, dusky, vivid, true."

Behold the champion of absentees! George surely knows how to be missing from school! How do you do it? However, his able assistance in the matter of stage properties easily makes up for this. Room A will miss his cheery smile next year, even more than his help in the auditorium, if possible.

JUSTINE ELIZABETH PHILLIPS
"Tunas"

"And I oft have heard defended Little said is soonest mended."

You know her by her nice wide smile and cheerful frame of mind. Justine came here from Springfield last year. She doesn't know what she will do next year; she is interested in hair dressing. Good luck and lots of it, "Tunas"!

RENA KATHERINE POULOS
"Renee"

"I am the very pink of courtesy."
Glee Club (1, 2).

Everybody knows this "petite" girl with the pretty hair. The girls in Room A have discovered that she's clever at doing up other people's hair, too. "Renee" says she'd like to go in training next year, but can't quite decide where to go. We all wish her the best of success in whatever she may undertake.

EDWARD JOHN POWERS, JR.
"Fireman"

"Fireman, save my child."

Football, Second Team (1); Football (2, 3); Hi-Y (4).

"Eddie" is one of our good-natured fellows from the "shack." What would our football team have done without this fighting lad? "Eddie" has been very busy during his high school days, especially since that A. & P. market was opened. When it comes to chemistry, "Eddie" is right there. And can that boy blush! We are all acquainted with his cheerful smile and his witty remarks. Next year, some prep school will receive this studious boy.

WANDA CAROLYN PRUSICK
"Toddy"

"A very riband in the cap of youth."

Wanda is another who hasn't decided just what she will do next year. Haven't we seen her in a certain drug-store "dishing" out ice-cream, and does she know her sodas? What's this about that car you sometimes come to school in?

KATHERINE MARY PULASKI
"Kay"

"And is there a care in Heaven?"

Glee Club (1, 2); Commercial Club (3, 4).

Who is the girl whose outward appearance leads everyone to believe that she is very quiet? We who know her well, know that she is much more "full of the dickens" than she seems. We've seen her in one of the stores in town, where she plans to continue her work for a time. Perhaps she will go away to school in a year or two to study personnel directing.

SARAH GWENDOLYN REID
"Gwen"

"Happy heart better than wealth."

"Belle of Barcelona" (1); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Class Basketball (2, 3).

"Gwen's" sunny. In fact her initials indicate that Sunshine Gloriously Radiates. "Sally Gwen" likes to sing which also points to the aforesaid. We wonder if "Gwen" ever had any serious thoughts. She never seems to worry about home-work, anyway. But she must be quick to learn for she always passes her subjects. "Gwen" is going to normal school.

ROBERT FRANCIS REYNOLDS
"Red"

"Actions speak louder than words."

Basketball (2, 3, 4); Baseball (2, 3); Year Book Staff; Exponent (3); Treasurer (2); Dance Committee (2, 4); "The Boule Cabinet" (4); "Pinafore" (2); "Belle of Barcelona" (1); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Dramatic Club (4); Band (1); Cheer Leader (3, 4); G. H. S. Syncoptors (3, 4); Silver G Club.

"Red" is a singer, clubman, athlete, actor, politician, musician, and cheer leader. His Silver "G" proves his accomplishments in High. Didn't he make a dandy leading man in the Senior Play? He was at home in the part of a reporter as he had also reported for our school paper. G. H. S. will lose an active student when "Bob" goes to the Alviene School of the Theatre.

HOPE PRISCILLA RICHARDS
"Crisco"

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Field Hockey (1, 2, 3, 4); Tennis (1, 4); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Debating Club (3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Spanish Club (3).

Hope's middle initial is P, which stands for "Pep." Also, her hair is red. She has a strong singing voice and especially likes "hims." She has, in her light happy mood, forgotten to attend, perhaps we can say, Physics class. Hope has high hopes of training at the Hartford City Hospital.

MURIEL ANN RICHARDS
"Mu"

"I've found it a life full of kindness and bliss."

Camera Club (1); Spanish Club (3); Science Club (4).

"Mu's" hobby must be clubs, for she has been in many inside and outside of school. Maybe she'll be a successful club leader. She is not like her red-headed sister as Muriel is more quiet, but everyone knows that she is full of fun and a great little pal. Muriel wants to come back to G. H. S. next year to take a P. G. course for more credits toward college.

EARLE WILLIAM RICHARDSON "Ham"

"Life is more like wrestling than dancing."

Football (1, 2, 3, Captain 4); Track (3); Basketball (3, Trainer 4); Exponent (3, 4); Year Book Staff; Student Council (4); "Belle of Barcelona" (1); "Two Crooks and a Lady" (3, 4); Senior Play (4); Dramatic Club (3, 4); Orchestra (2); Band (1, 2, 3); Assembly Orchestra (1, 2, 3).

As captain of the football team "Ham" led the team of '31 through a victorious year. If he sets out to do a thing he is sure to succeed. In his Senior year, his first year in basketball, he made one of the basketball teams. His outside interest is wrestling. You can see Earle is athletic. He's an actor, athlete, and musician all in one.

LOUIS SIBLEY RICHARDSON "Lou"

"If she undervalue me
What care I how fair she be."

Football (1, 3); Track (2); "Pepita" (3); "The Boule Cabinet" (4); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Band (1).

Do you remember the "footman" in the Senior play, the "bold bad villain" in "Miss Cherryblossom" and the fine tenor in "Pepita"? . . . Well, Louis was all of these and a fine job he did of each one. Likeable and with a keen sense of humor, he is welcome wherever he goes. Louis is a football and track man of no little ability. New York Medical School claims Louis next year.

ALMA MILDRED RICHARDSON "Al"

"I would help out of a fellow feeling."
"Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Chorus (2, 3, 4); Commercial Club (3, 4).

Sh! Don't tell me you don't know who is walking with Louis? Why Alma, of course, one of the Richardson pair. "Al" has a fine voice and has been a member of the Glee Club for three years. She took part in "Miss Cherryblossom" and her voice was a great asset. Whatever her plans for the future are we are sure she will be successful.

MOE RISPLER "Moey"

"One is never alone who is occupied with noble thoughts."

Senior Commercial Club (4).

"Moey" is a dark-haired, athletically built boy who thinks much and says little. His activities in school have been mostly scholastic but his outside activities . . . well that's another story. Even Walter Winchell has his secrets and so, "Moey," we'll give them all the run around and let them guess. Whatever you plan for your future we feel sure that success is looking right at you.

JUNE ELIZABETH ROBBINS "Bobbie"

"Nothing is impossible to Diligence and Skill."

Secretary and Treasurer of Pro Merito; Royal and Remington Typewriting Awards, and filing certificates; Tennis (1, 3, 4); Exponent (3); Year Book Staff; Student Council (2); Class Secretary (2); Junior Commercial Club (3); Senior Commercial Club (4); Silver G Club (3).

June is the girl with the "Pepsodent Smile." Her activities in G. H. S. have been many and varied. Scholastic honors, athletic fame, and all round popularity have been her accomplishments and here are a few proofs—Secretary of Pro Merito, acknowledged best tennis player in the class, and has many friends.

NORMAN PHILIP ROBERTS "Norm"

"Speak low if you speak of love."

Manager of Hockey (4); Exponent (3); Band (2, 3, 4); Assembly Orchestra (3, 4); Archery (4); Treasurer of Latin Club (3).

"Norm" is that gay lad always seen with his Austin and—well, we won't give him away. Energetic trumpet player in the band and orchestra, he is happy only when busy. Pleasant company, as his many friends can testify, Norman is always in the center of the gathering. He is an active member of the Latin Club and an archer of no little ability. The American School of Laundry welcomes "Norm" and we all wish him success.

EVELYN HOPE ROBINSON "Ev"

"She is tall but divinely fair."

"Belle of Barcelona" (1); "Pepita" (3); Glee Club (1, 4); Dramatic Club (3, 4); Spanish Club (3).

We will remember that tall blonde from the city over the hill whose interest lies in singing and dramatics. Could an Operetta get along without "Ev"? No, we're afraid not. They'll miss you next year, but let us wish you the best of luck in life and your musical career.

GERDA LAURA ROSENZWEIG "Smitty"

"Good things come in small packages."

Pro Merito; Year Book Staff; Freshman Dance Committee (2); "Pepita" (3); "Two Crooks and a Lady" (4); "The Boule Cabinet" (4); "Belle of Barcelona" (2); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Latin Club (3); Dramatic Club (2, 3, 4).

Who won't miss this cheerful little person next year? To see her run bustling about one would think she was in a hurry, but not at all. She will stop and have a chat with you any place, at any time, on any subject. "Smitty" also rates very high in dramatic ability.

SEBASTIAN JOHN RUGGERI "Busty"

"Girls, beware this dark-haired young gentleman."

Basketball, Second Team (4); Year Book Staff; "The Boule Cabinet" (4); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Hi-Y (4); Dramatic Club (4); Public Speaking (3).

"Busty," who doesn't know him and has not seen him dance? A dance without him just isn't. To see him glide along the floor with the latest steps makes one think of Spring itself. If you learn as fast in life as you have on the dance floor your worries should be few.

WALTER JOSEPH SCHWARZ "Wallie"

"None but himself can be his parallel."

"Pinafore" (2); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Science Club (1); Commercial Club (3).

"Wallie" is that quiet (?) lad who may be seen running around the corridor mornings asking everyone foolish questions. Although quiet he is welcomed in any class room with his sunny smile and mischievous laugh. Take care, "Wallie."

MARTELL WALLACE SEYMOUR
"Spider"

"Joy is in laughter itself."

Track (2, 3); Hockey (2, 3, 4, Captain 4); Football (2, 3, 4); Baseball Manager (4); "The Boule Cabinet" (4).

Martell is the jumpy, rollicking lad from the "Meadows" whose interest lies in calculatin' aggravin' tales, and tossing a calf now and then. He plays hockey (down east or otherwise). He has a cheery smile for everyone and can hold conversation with the best. We wish him lots of luck and happiness in the future.

HARRIET BEATRICE SMITH
"Harriet"

"Wisdom shall die with you."

Pro Merito; Exponent (4); Year Book; Girl Scouts (3, 4, Vice-President 4); Latin Club (3, 4, Vice-President 4).

Who doesn't know Harriet, the girl with a smile for everyone? She has attained high scholastic ranks while in High School. She is interested in Girl Scouts, and she was vice-president of that organization in her Junior year. She also likes to attend Epworth League Sunday nights. We wonder why (???) She plans to enter Smith College next September.

ZIGMUND ANDREW SIMONDISKY
"Ziggie"

"Sensible people find nothing useless."
Track (1, 3).

Zigmund is that small boy with the red hair who comes on the bus from Millers Falls every day. He is a quiet boy, and we haven't heard much from him. Perhaps he is a woman hater, who knows? Zigmund was an unfailing aid to the track team in '29 and '31.

ISADORE MAE SMITH
"Issy"

"Hang sorrow; care will kill a cat;
Therefore let's be merry."

Vice-President (1); Student Council (1).

If you should see a young lady strolling along the corridor with a cheery smile for everyone and whistling a merry tune, you will know it is "Issy," as she is known to her many friends. "Issy" has been an active member of our class. She was vice-president our Freshman year and member of the council. In whatever you undertake next year, Isadore, the class wishes you lots o' luck.

JOSEPH FRANK SINDUT
"Joe"

"Men of few words are the best men."

"Joe" is always seen with his "side-kick," who is, of course, Frank Sledzik. "Joe" has been quiet his four years in High School, but he works hard at his commercial work. He says he is going to work next year.

LOUISE MARY SMITH
"Lou"

"Her heart is like a garden fair;
Where many pleasant blossoms grow."

Archery Club (3); Junior Commercial Club (3).

Louise is a charming young miss who has won many friends during her four years in High School. Say what you will, Louise's friendship is priceless, and she's the kind of a girl we'll all remember. Whatever you take up next year, we all wish you loads of luck and success.

FRANK STANLEY SLEDZIK
"Fish"

"Sing away sorrow, cast away care."
Class Basketball.

Frank is another who came to G. H. S. in his Junior year and liked it so well that he decided to stay. He is always seen with his pal, "Joe" Sindut. He is interested in basketball, and he goes out for class basketball. His plans for the future are still undecided, but in whatever he undertakes, the Class of '32 wishes him the best of luck!

VICTOR EPHREUM SNYDER
"Vic"

"Perseverance keeps honor bright."

Assistant Football Manager (3); Football Manager (4).

"Vic" is the curly-headed little boy from Room B. We all know "Vic" as a "regular feller," and a faithful worker for the football team, of which he was manager his Senior year. Victor is not given to prudishness, and can pal around with any of the boys. In all he is a good sport and a good friend.

FRANKLIN HORACE SMITH
"Smitty"

"Happy-go-lucky, fair and free,
Nothing there is that bothers me."

Who is that fellow with the broad smile on his face? Why, Franklin Smith, of course. Franklin is that boy who seems to have a weakness for getting pinkslips. Nevertheless, he has a keen sense of humor, which we hope will carry him to greater heights of success in the future!

GEORGE ALEXANDER SPEAR
"Jones"

"A contented spirit is the sweetness of existence."

Science Club (4).

George is one of the boys from the Meadows who comes to school every morning on the bus. George seems like a quiet reserved boy but those who are better acquainted with him know his mischievous ways. George is an active member of the Science Club, and has helped toward its success. In whatever you undertake, here's wishing you luck.

COLFA GENEVIEVE
STASINOPOULOS

"Stas"

"A good heart is better than all the heads in the world."

Hockey; Debating Club (3, 4).

Colfa, one of the twins, is the girl who greets everyone with a cheery "hello there." "Don't forget, Colfa, I want the newspaper next." That is a phrase familiar to her, for she always brings the morning paper. Colfa's interest centers in the Debating Club, of which she has been an active member. During her spare time she helps her uncle at the fruit store. Colfa is planning to take up nursing for her career, in which the class wishes her success.

STEVEOLA ELIZABETH
STASINOPOULOS

"Steve"

"A happy-go-lucky lass at heart."

Field Hockey (1, 2); Class Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Spanish Club (3).

Have you discovered the source of noise in Room B before school? We have solved the mystery. As you have probably guessed, it is "Steve," a very noisy girl when she once gets started, but we like her just the same. "Steve" has been a valuable asset to the athletic teams of school during her active years in G. H. S.

FRANCES MILLER STRECKER

"Fran"

"A rare compound of oddity, frolic, and fun"

She relishes a joke and rejoices in a pun."

Pro Merito; Exponent (3, 4); Year Book Staff; "Pinafore" (2); "Pepita" (3); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Latin Club (3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Silver G.

Ask anyone who knows "Fran" and you will receive the same answer, for she is known to everyone as a very energetic young lady bubbling over with laughter and fun. There are rumors, however, that all her smiles are not meant for Greenfield, but there are some for Hartford as well.

MYRTLE FLORENCE TALBOT

"Billie"

"Lucky is she who finds favor in everyone's eyes."

Class Basketball (1, 2); Field Hockey (1, 4); Exponent (2, 3, 4); Year Book Staff; "The Boule Cabinet"; Debating Club (4); Science Club (4); Dramatic Club (4); Silver G.

"Billie" is an actress, authoress, athlete, and an all round good sport. "Billie" was one of the three girls in the Senior Play. She is another one of these girls who is very fond of athletics (and athletes). "Billie" may some day be a rival of P. G. Wodehouse, for certainly she has a keen sense of humor and knows how to write.

ROYAL KENDRICK TANNER

"Shorty"

"Tho' modest, on his embarrassed brow Nature has written — Gentleman."

Pro Merito; Year Book; Hi-Y (3, 4); Science Club (3, 4, President 4); Silver G.

Such an amicable leader as "Shorty" surely would have been missed by all, especially the Science Club, for "Shorty" has done much to make this one of the leading organizations of our school. He has not confined his interests to the Science Club for he is also an active member of the Hi-Y.

DONALD HAROLD TATRO

"Speed"

"Everyone cannot help but like this chap."

Basketball, Second Team (3).

"Speed" is a short little boy from North Parish who may be seen going into the annex every morning. He is a quiet boy and always likes basketball (!) and studying (?). "Speed" has many friends in G. H. S. even if he has not taken a very active part in the school activities. We are sure that you will be a great success, "Speed."

HAROLD ERNEST THAYER

"Harry"

"He that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast."

Harold has not taken a very active part in school activities, but wherever there is a noise or a good time Harold is always sure to be there. He is one of the many noisy boys of the class of '32. "Harry" has gained many friends while in G. H. S. and they all wish him the best of luck.

WELLSLEY GRAHAM THOMPSON

"Ick"

"Words are grown so false, I am loath to prove reason with them."

Every morning Wellsley may be seen coming on the bus from Millers Falls. He is a quiet, good-natured fellow who is very easy to get along with. The class of '32 wishes him the best of success in anything he may undertake.

ANTHONY PAUL TRELA

"Bull"

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

Football (2, 3, 4).

Anthony is one of the quiet boys of the Senior class. During the last three years of his high school career he has played on the football team. Anthony plans to continue his education, and we know he will succeed at anything that he may undertake.

HELEN ANNETTE UNDERWOOD

"Undie"

"Be glad and your friends are many."

"Belle of Barcelona" (1); "Pinafore" (2); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4).

Everyone knows "Miss Greenfield." If you don't you're missing something. She is a quiet girl but she always has a smile and a cheery, "Hi." Every afternoon and evening she may be seen at Fitch's. We have not heard of her plans for the future, but we are sure that she will be a success in anything she may undertake.

MARION VIRGINIA UZDAVINIS
"Marion"

"Our content is our best having."

Marion is the cheerful girl in Room B who has a smile for everybody. She is well-liked by all her classmates, with no exceptions. Marion says she has not done much during her high school career, but we say she has made many fine friends, and who could do more?

GERTRUDE MABEL VICKERY
"Vicky"

"It is a friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

Class Basketball (2, 4); Exponent (3, 4); Year Book Staff; Girl Scouts (3, 4); Debating Club (3, 4); Science Club (4); Silver G Club.

"Vicky" is well-known as "a good pal and a lot of fun." She has provided much merriment in some of our otherwise dull classes. The only thing she takes seriously is friendship. "Vicky" is fond of all athletics (and a certain athlete). "Vicky's" going to train to be a History teacher at M. S. C. so perhaps some day she'll be back in G. H. S.

JOHN MacGILL WARD
"Flash"

"With such a comrade, such a friend
I fain would walk 'til journeys-end."

Science Club (1, 2, 3); Hi-Y (4); Aviation Club (4); Archery (3, 4).

"Flash" may be his nickname, but did you ever see him hurry? He may take his time, but he does get there. "Flash" is an excellent archer, and has added much to the progress of our clubs. Also, he's another reason underclass girls look up to Senior boys.

ELLEN EVA WEATHERHEAD
"Pete"

"It is in learning music that many a youthful heart learns love."

Year Book Staff; "Belle of Barcelona" (1); "Pinafore" (2); "Pepita" (3); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Commercial Club (3); Dramatic Club (3, 4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4).

"Pete" is a classmate we may well be proud of. She has been in all of our operettas since she entered High School, and in her Junior and Senior years played the title roles. It wasn't all work though, was it, "Pete"? She seems to like her leading men, too. "Pete" will continue her study of music, and with her glorious voice she is bound to go far.

MARGARET ELSIE WEIR
"Peggy"

"We are charmed by neatness of person."

Pro Merito.

Elsie is one of the smaller girls of the class of '32, but the size doesn't make any difference. She is good at art and is well known for her sunny smile. Elsie also made Pro Merito. She says she would like to be a Technician but hasn't decided just where she will go. Lucky patients to have you as a Technician, Elsie.

WILLIAM DONALD WEISSENBORN
"Billy"

Manager Basketball (4); Archery Club (3); Science Club (3, 4); Latin Club (3); Student Council (4).

"Billy" is one of our quiet boys from Room B and is well known in managing and photographing circles. What would our dances in the Gym have been this year without "Billy" on hand to manipulate the lights? Together with "Red" and "Tub" he forms a trio similar to the "Three Musketeers"!

ELIZABETH ROSE WELCOME
"Babe"

"A friend is worth all hazards we can run."

Tennis Tournaments (1, 2); Archery Club (3); Field Hockey (1, 2); Commercial Club (3).

"Babe" is that cheerful person from Room B who always has a pleasant smile and a cheery "hello" for everyone. If you should hear a hearty laugh in the distance it will probably be "Babe." She was a member of the Archery Club. Look out for Cupid's Dart, "Babe." Like most of us she is undecided as to the future, but we know she'll make good in whatever she attempts.

ANNETTE WELD
"Andy"

"Her heart is in her work."

Pro Merito.

Annette is the tall brunette from the "cottage." She is also known as a quiet and studious girl. Her name always appears on the honor roll. She has worked hard these four years and well deserves to be a member of the honor society of G. H. S. She is undecided as to what she will do in the future but whatever you're going to do, we wish you luck.

ARLINE LOUISE WHIPPLE
"Ar"

"Gallant, graceful, gentle, tall, Fairest, noblest, best of all."

"Belle of Barcelona" (1); "Pinafore" (2); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Commercial Club (3, 4, Secretary 3); Spanish Club (3); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Pro Merito.

Arline is the attractive blonde who always has a cheerful "howdy" for everyone. We wonder whom she is thinking of. She says she is planning to take an extensive tour and we wonder who will go with her. She made the Pro Merito and appeared in several of the operettas that G. H. S. Glee Club gave. She is undecided as to the future.

EFFIE MAY WHITE
"Mike"

"She says little but thinks much."

Pro Merito.

Effie is one of the quietest members of G. H. S. and yet she isn't to be forgotten. Her name is always found on the honor roll and she has made the Pro Merito Society. She can speak French almost to perfection and is just as good in English. She is undecided as to what she will do in the future. She says she would like to be a teacher. We know you would make a good teacher, Effie.

PERRY MARSHALL WILDER
"Perry"

"Smile and the world smiles with you."
Archery Club (3, 4); Aviation Club (4).
Perry is another boy from the annex. He is very often heard but not seen. Perry has scored many points for the Archery Club. What will they do without Perry? G. H. S. will surely miss him, but we wish him the best of success in whatever he may undertake.

JOHN JOSEPH WITEK
"Jonathan"

"Still water runs deep."
John is a very quiet fellow, often seen but not heard. He has not taken part in many of the Activities of G. H. S., but he is very studious, always one of the first ones at school in the morning. If you don't believe it ask some one from Room B of the annex. John plans to continue his studies.

ADELBERTA WOOD
"Berta"

"If at first you don't succeed
Try and try again."
Senior Dance Committee; Dramatic Club (3, 4); Science Club (4); Prize Speaking; (3); "Pepita" (3); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4).
"Berta" came to us at the beginning of her Junior year. She has gained many friends with her ready smile. "Berta" enjoys driving, but often stalls the car when an officer stops her. She is undecided as to what she will do in the near future, but we know she will succeed in whatever she undertakes.

DONALD CADWELL WOOD
"Don"

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."
Science Club (3, 4); Hi-Y (4).
Everyone knows "Don." He is the boy from Room B of the annex who always has a cheery "hi" for everyone. "Don" has been very popular in the Hi-Y and Science Clubs. He is planning to continue his studies at Fitchburg Normal and we know he will succeed.

RUTH LILLIAN YEAW
"Rufus"

"Peaceful, loyal, loving and kind
"A friend like Ruth you seldom find."
Year Book Staff; Dance Committee (1); "Pinafore" (2); "Pepita" (3); "Miss Cherryblossom" (4); Glee Club (1, 2, 3, 4); Latin Club (3); Science Club (4); Archery Club (3, 4, Vice President 3); Orchestra (1, 2, 3).
Ruth has been very popular during her high school career. At present she is interested in Amherst College. We wonder why, but then, her brother goes there (?). Ruth is undecided as to what she is going to do in the near future, but G. H. S. wishes her the best of luck.

President's Address

PARENTS, Friends and Faculty:

I realize my rare privilege as I welcome you, in behalf of the class of 1932, to our Class Day exercises. It is with much pride that I shall introduce to you those of the class of '32 who have shown outstanding scholarship during their high school days; those who have been chosen for ability by the faculty; those whom the class has elected and those who succeeded in competition.

CLASSMATES:

As we look back upon our four years spent in this high school, we wonder how the time has passed so quickly. We remember when we first entered this school. All was strange then, and the road that lay before us seemed endless. However, before long we became aware of the fact that in order to fulfill our hopes and ambitions, hard work was essential. Perhaps that is one reason why time has hurried by or maybe another cause is that we have so greatly enjoyed ourselves. We all have had many good times and have made numerous worthwhile friendships. Nevertheless, now that our high school days are nearly over, and we are going out into this wide world to various experiences, let us not forget our friends and those who have tried so hard to educate us. I know that every one of us has a feeling of regret in his heart, as he says "au revoir" to the happy scene of his high school days.

Robert Trost Bitters

Salutatory and Essay

PARENTS, Teachers, Friends:

I am very happy to extend to you, in behalf of the Class of 1932, a most cordial welcome to our Class Day exercises.

To our beloved parents, we wish to show our gratitude and appreciation for their sacrifices, which have made it possible for us to be here today. To our teachers, who have encouraged and advised us throughout our school career, and to our friends who have helped in any way to make our school-days a success, we wish to extend our heartfelt thanks.

Our Motto and the Future

All through June, the words "graduation," "education," "life work" are dinned into one's ears. Throughout the country young people have been or are being graduated, and sundry wise men and women are addressing them on the difference between school and life, and on the meaning of mental and moral development. Is the impatience we sometimes find manifested at the mere mention of those terms which suggest embarking upon life's sea perhaps a little indication of a fear that lurks in the minds of certain restless individuals — fear of what lies before them; fear of that vast, unexplored, unknown, "the future"? I shall ask you to consider with me what we have with which to combat that fear and help us to face the future with courage and confidence.

Having finished our four years course in high school, we are each to step out into the world to do our part both for our own benefit and for the benefit of the people of this great land of ours. The question that presents itself to each and every one of us is: "What shall be my life work?" We are quite naturally and properly concerned with the place we shall take in the world. Already many have decided upon the walks of life that will mean for them success in the future. Doctors, lawyers, engineers, educators, business men and women of tomorrow are the high school graduates of today. Truly, the question of vocation in this era is an important one, worthy of serious and sound consideration.

But I am wondering if perhaps the question that arises in the minds of most of our parents, and in the minds of thinking men and women today is less of "What do we want our children to do?" and more of "What sort of men and women do we want our children to become?" A hundred people would give a hundred answers according to the limited views of each. A business man might say, "I want my son to be a successful merchant"; while a cultured man might say, "I want my son to become a perfect gentleman." A larger outlook seeks for certain substantials in every man or woman — a fair equipment of knowledge, a fair intelligence, a fair judgment, a fair amount of energy, of culture and refinement. But the most important of all is character, which we may define as life dominated by principles.

We are told that little things are important by what they draw after them. Besides the knowledge that we have gained in high school, besides the associations we have formed, the habits we have acquired, we have had during all that time a "little thing," which, for the very reason that we have always had it, we have come to accept as a matter of course. For that reason also, we sometimes fail to give it the place it deserves in the lists which we have formed in our minds of all that we owe to this high school. I refer to our motto, which, in three words, demands of us standards of achievement, not always easy of accomplishment, but worthy at all times to challenge the best minds and the feeblest efforts. That motto is: "Loyalty, Honor, and Scholarship" — a whole character-making program in itself.

Our loyalty to home, to school, and to country has been tested during our school-days. Our loyalty to ideals set forth in Greenfield High School has been shown in our efforts to uphold the good name of the school, in supporting its activities, and in the record which we have made there. Today, unusual opportunities are presented to properly equipped young people, who have been trained by the hard experience of the present. To them also has been given a greatly improved knowledge of facts. More than ever before, the world today needs men and women of unswerving allegiance and of fidelity to ideals which will make our world a better place in which to live.

One cannot believe in honor until he has achieved it. The money-making tendencies of the age and the prevailing social worship of the wealthy are responsible for wrong ideas and wrong ideals in the world today. False standards of life, of character, of play, and of friends are to be avoided if honor, which is a part of our most valued heritage, is to be guided and guarded. The vast store of acquaintanceship and even close friendship with the world's heroic men and women as inspiration point out prominently the honorable lives which were the foundation of their success, and without which they would not have been called great. "Honor any man who, in discharge of his duty, dares to stand alone; whose sense of duty done is better than the applause of the world."

Pupils are prone to think of scholarship as only "excellence in studies." But I would ask you to consider the word in a far broader sense. Not in books alone shall we find the values of life, but also in the sincere application of the best that is in us to whatever task lies before us. "There is quite as much learning in the analysis of an ear of corn as in the analysis of a complex sentence." It is also true, as thinking minds have pointed out to us, that knowledge is essential to conquest, and only according to our ignorance are we helpless.

This is the thought that I would leave with you: Henry Ward Beecher has said that all high ideals, motives, and sentiments in a man are of no account if they do not come forward to strengthen him for the discharge of his duties in the ordinary affairs in life. Let us, therefore, in the ordinary affairs of our lives, give thought and application to the allegiance to unswerving duty, the character and high purpose, the industry and diligence which are contained in the principles of our motto: "Loyalty, Honor, and Scholarship."

Personality

“When wealth is lost, nothing is lost;
When health is lost, something is lost;
When character is lost, all is lost!”

THIS quotation proves the fact that personality is an asset to anyone. Personality is individuality or a person's character. To a large extent the elements of personality which are visible externally reflect one's innermost inclinations.

To discuss this subject is to think only of the person's character, not his intellect. Intellect is knowledge; but personality is the outward character of a person. Personality is decidedly an asset and not a liability. Its presence offsets, in many instances, certain otherwise essential elements. It is important in securing success because a person with personality breaks down all barriers and paves his way to the goal of his ambition.

Personality can be acquired. It is partially in-born, but, if it has not been inborn in a person, he can acquire it through a right environment plus genuine effort on his own part. Personality makes the highway of life much easier to travel.

It is expressed in several different ways. The voice is the first and most important way. The voice not only is a means of expressing one's ideas and conveying them to other people but also is a means of determining what a person's character is.

A person's carriage or walk also determines what his character is. Each and every person has a different walk which is distinctive of his own character. A criminal has a certain slouch which is characteristic of all criminals. A small child walks lightly and easily, perhaps runs or skips, which shows youth.

Next we come to another way, probably less important, but equally as interesting — the way in which a person eats. The famous English writer, Samuel Johnson, is particularly interesting in this respect. Johnson was afflicted with a disease which made his actions very peculiar. He attended numerous banquets at wealthy homes. He embarrassed his host or hostess by eating ravenously and bolting his food. He also chewed his food with great gusto which was distinctive of Johnson but annoying to the guests. Another queer incident pertained to a farmer who was visiting the city for the first time. While eating in a large hotel, he observed that the waiter served all the guests finger bowls at the end of the meal. He watched several people use them, and, when the waiter served him one, he remarked:

“Well, I might as well use it to the best advantage.” Thereupon he proceeded to wash his face.

I have cited these two incidents not for you to use as patterns for your table manners, but to prove that personality, pleasing or otherwise, may be shown in such a commonplace action as eating.

“Personality is the keynote of success.” All great men of the world have personality or they would not be leading men of the world. Lindbergh is one example where personality has helped to secure success. Napoleon, Washington, Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt, and President Hoover — all have been successful in their chosen field. Why? The reason is because their personality was outstanding and made them successful.

A young boy in a small town was anxious to get forward in the world. He started out to the city, and people remarked that he would never get anywhere even though he had personality. Years later they read how “this certain boy with only personality” was a leading figure in the events of the world.

Personality is a magnet which draws people to you. The most popular boy in high school may not be popular because of his “good looks,” but because his personality has drawn many friends to him, and his consideration has kept them. The fellow who is chosen captain on an athletic team is the boy whose character is worthy of such an honor. President Hoover is a leader of the present day. His character won him this place. Leaders are people with personality.

The presence of personality makes other essential elements be forgotten. Helen Keller, who is one of the leading writers of today, has a personality which is not to be forgotten, but one which will be written about for many years to come. She has secured success and happiness, even though she is deaf, dumb, and blind. Franklin D. Roosevelt, a leading figure in the Democratic party, is also to be complimented on his sterling character. At the age of thirty-nine he was stricken with Infantile Paralysis, and the lower part of his body became paralyzed. In spite of this, he has risen to the greatest height of success. There are numerous cases of great people who, through the strength of personality, have overcome great difficulties.

Personality is the foundation and one of the stepping-stones to success. Regardless of other obstacles, if you have personality, you can rise to your highest ambition. Daniel Webster has remarked that America has furnished the character of Washington to the world. Washington, because of his character, will remain immortal. Personality is the fundamental assurance of immortality.

The presence of personality is apparent, and its absence is glaring. Develop personality. It is important. Therefore, make it your stepping-stone to success.

In closing I wish to give you the "Creed" of Edwin Markham which it is well to remember in developing personality.

"There is a destiny that makes us brothers
None goes his way alone
All that we send into the lives of others,
Comes back into our own.
I care not what his temples or his creeds,
One thing holds firm and fast —
That into his fateful heap of days and deeds
The soul of a man is cast."

Following Guideposts

EVERYBODY has to follow guideposts sometime in life. When one is riding in an automobile, when one is walking, when one is talking, when one is doing almost anything, there are certain guideposts or signs which one must follow. It is very necessary that we have these in our lives just as we must have them on our pathways. Just think what the world would be, if we had no definite rules or guideposts for government. We would have no civilization, for everybody would be fighting everybody else.

When anyone is out driving on a strange road, it is necessary that he look very carefully at all sign posts. If he happens to get on the wrong road, you know what the result is. He may travel for miles and miles before he finds out that he took the wrong turn many miles back. In life it is just the same; some people find out that they have chosen the wrong vocations many years too late; others find this out in time to do something about it.

Most of the people in the world have guideposts within themselves; by this I mean that they let their personalities be their pilots. This is noticed especially in small children, both boys and girls. Most of us boys used to or still do imitate our favorite heroes on the screen, stage or radio. In playing games the players try to imitate the player that they think is the best. For instance, a baseball player might watch his favorite player and then the player would immediately go out and imitate the big leaguer. There is usually a fairly high percentage of accuracy in these imitations. Small boys and girls have the larger boys and girls for their patterns in life.

Another guidepost which everybody follows is the customs and traditions of his country. When a foreigner comes to America, he is looked at by all the people. Why — ? Because the country from which he has come has different customs and mannerisms than America has. It is just the same when an American goes to a foreign country. He seems rather out of place because he is not used to following the same kind of guideposts as the people of that particular country are.

When a person who does not keep his yard clean moves into a community where the yards are clean, he is made the object of many people's remarks. The reason for this is customs. It has always been the custom in that community to keep one's yard clean; thus people cannot go against the customs as guideposts without causing much discussion about themselves. In some sections of certain cities it is necessary to keep up appearances or else you may be in serious trouble.

Traditions and superstitions are other guideposts. After a tradition has been handed down for hundreds of years, it is unwise to go against that tradition. Why is it that people nearly always go around a ladder? It is because they are using superstition as a guide. In the days of the Puritans many people were persecuted as witches. This was because of superstition. Shakespeare uses superstition as a guide in most of his plays. In "Macbeth" he uses odd numbers as 3, 5, 7, 9, etc., and he always had the witches make their prophecies during a thunderstorm or else on a cold, bleak night. Many presidents of the United States have been elected for a third term, but did they accept it? No, of course not. Why — ? Because it has been a precedent or tradition that George Washington, our first president, started, namely — not to accept the office of president for more than two terms. Everyday you may see in the newspapers where people have not dared to do something merely because it is traditional not to do.

In the Southern and Western part of our country the people do not speak nor act the same as we do. It is because they are using traditions as a guidepost. They have inherited their mannerisms from their forefathers. If we Northerners go South, we think that the Southerners talk very slowly and use queer expressions. We think this because their speech is so different from ours. Their expressions have been handed down from generation to generation until it has finally become an unwritten law or another pilot.

Each day there are guideposts which are continually being broken; these are the laws of our Nation. Even though we have police and special officers to try to enforce these, the officers do not succeed, and the laws are broken. Each day we see in the papers where someone has been arrested for violating the eighteenth amendment. Usually a still has been found and raided, and many gallons of liquor have been confiscated. Just now the United States is recovering from the awful kidnapping and murdering of the Lindbergh baby. These are examples of guideposts which should not be broken.

The churches and schools of the world are guideposts. The churches teach us the right way of living, whereas the schools teach us the way in which to earn our living. The Heavenly Father is the most influential guide in our lives. When we are in trouble we look to Him above for help. Our school teachers are also guides in our lives. They teach us the development of our character and personality.

It is very necessary to have these different guideposts in our lives. Just think what it would mean if we had no sign posts on roads, no customs, no traditions, no superstitions, no laws, no churches, no schools. Such conditions would make it impossible for there to be civilization in this world of ours.

In life we must follow the right guideposts if we wish to be a success. Just as we must follow the right signs while driving on a strange road, so must we follow the right signs or guideposts in life. One of the best ways to do is to let our consciences be our guides. Each of us may follow different guideposts, but, if we do what we think in our own minds is right, we have a very good chance of making a success and not a failure of our lives.

History of the Class of 1932

Characters: Gerald Bates and William Caldwell

BATES: "Hi! there, 'Caldy'! What's the hurry?"

Caldwell: "Oh, I was just going out to powder my nose for graduation."

Bates: "We've got loads of time. Let's sit down for a few minutes and talk over the past."

C.: "Say, that's an idea at that. Do you know that when this school loses our class, it's going to be a tough break for old G. H. S.?"

B.: "Oh, well, that's understood — but just think of the break the world at large will get when we step out into it. Look at the material the political world is getting. Just think of it, we have in our midst four people fully qualified to be future presidents."

C.: "Speaking of presidents, our class has certainly known how to pick them. In our Freshman year 'Red' Bitters was elected president."

B.: "Say, you know, 'Caldy,' if ever I have a son I hope he has red hair. 'Red' was sure an outstanding member of our class. 'Red' was prominent as Freshman and Senior president."

C.: "For vice-president that first year we elected Isadore Smith. Helen Ellis was our secretary."

B.: "There was another office held there somewhere; oh, I've got it. 'Denny' Campbell was elected treasurer, the keeper of the bees."

C.: "You know, there is something about the Freshman year that all those who attended will not forget. The Freshman Hop. Yes, sir, that was absolutely priceless. We were under no obligations other than eating all we could and keeping out of the way."

B.: "And the strict instructions from home to get home at a reasonable hour."

C.: "How about the athletes and musicians we have in our organization?"

B.: "If we should discuss all the musical and athletic talent in our class, we should be here for a considerable period of time."

C.: "On second thought I guess we had better let that slide although our brass band has blown itself to fame. If we advocate this point too strongly, the class of '32 will be forced to shine for another year."

B.: "That would be bad."

C.: "I don't seem to remember much about the Sophomore year."

B.: "Our Sophomore year went over with a bang. 'Bernie' Alex was dropped into the president's chair. Grace MacDonald and Arthur Jubb were vice-presidents. June Robbins was Secretary and another red head, Reynolds, was the overseer of our gains — class treasurer."

C.: "Now, I remember. This was the year that Alex, Lalor, Bitters, Allen, Dyer, and a vast lot of others showed their mettle on the athletic field. Speaking of metal, steel was quite prominent on the baseball diamond. It was a great habit to steal bases."

B.: "We had become quite acclimated to the surrounding atmosphere by then and were a little less aware of our upper brothers."

C.: "That year we had the honor of entertaining the Freshmen in their annual christening. As I think of it, I cannot help laughing at the way some of those young green ones would scam out of the way when Cecil Brown came swishing and scuffing down the dance floor."

B.: "Yes, how they did sense impending peril."

C.: "In our Junior year Lalor was elected President of the class and captain of the football and hockey teams."

B.: "And captain of his own counsel, which he kept."

C.: "Yes, Yes—'Deb' Hunt was elected vice-president, 'Russ' Allen held down the secretary's responsibilities and John Corliss was class treasurer."

B.: "This was the year of the Junior prize speaking in which 'Wes' Dame and 'Deb' Hunt captured honors."

C.: "The rest of the strivers were Alex, Ruggeri and Mary Dwyer, and my how they strived."

B.: "We shall not forget the outstanding event of that year."

C.: "What was it?"

B.: "The repeal of mid-year's exams. Our Senior year seemed to go before it started."

C.: "Yes, Bitters was unanimously elected president and —"

B.: "There's my red-headed son again."

C.: "'Deb' Hunt, our talented musician, was elected vice-president, with the aid of Wesley Dame as the other vice-president."

B.: "Oh, yes. There has to be a male in the hook-up somewhere."

C.: "Helen Ellis was elected treasurer."

B.: "That was the year that the class of '32 took charge of all activities in the school: the captaincy of baseball was held by 'Bernie' Alex, 'Ham' Richardson was elected captain of football, Seymour was elected captain of hockey, and Bitters was captain of basketball."

C.: "Then the class put on the Senior play, 'The Boule Cabinet,' in which 'Deb' Hunt and 'Bob' Reynolds played the leading parts."

B.: "See! There's the red hair again."

C.: "'Busty' Ruggeri, 'Ernie' Goldstein, Gerda Rosenzweig, Myrtle Talbot, Martell Seymour, 'Ham' Richardson, and 'Dick' Kulya made up the rest of the cast."

B.: "We do not want to overlook the noble work of 'Al' Barber, George Peters, and 'Phil' Norwood, back stage."

C.: "We also had Senior dances once a month under the supervision of the class president and a dance committee which he appointed from time to time."

B.: "Speaking of dances, look at the active part taken by Senior members in the Hi-Y commencement dance."

C.: "Yes, sir, that is an affair that is an affair."

B.: "The class of '32 was not only active in these outside activities, but look at the people we have with us who know their studies. Think of the competition Ethelyn Aldrich and Frances Allen were up against, being valedictorian and salutatorian of the class."

C.: "Gosh, how time flies! I'd better be going, or I shan't have time to powder my nose."

B.: "Well, 'Caldy,' we certainly haven't a kick coming as far as the reputation of the class of '32 is concerned, and we sincerely hope they keep up their good work after leaving good old G. H. S."

Prophecy of the Class of 1932

Time: 1977 B. C. — Before Crossing.

Setting: This side of the River Styx.

CHARON, our good friend, probably some of you have never heard of before. He is the man who rows the people across the River Styx. He has a long white beard, a very dirty one, too, and he is quite old himself because this occupation is all he has had during his immortal reign. The River Styx, you know, is the river you must cross when the spirits decide which place it is you will inhabit — maybe Hades and maybe — lots of places —

So now, you have before you, my dear fellow classmates, the River Styx. You are requested to use your imagination as much as is possible.

Deb: "Charon tells me he took a group of athletes over yesterday. Among them were Bernard Alex, star coach at Gill Institute; 'Bob' Bitters, star pitcher of horse shoes; Edward Lalor, the wing that was left of the Chicken Hockey Team; Earle Richardson, the big egg smasher from the West; and Edward Powers, his understudy, who made "Fireman Save My Child," the national yell; Martell Seymour of See-More and Do-Less University, and Anthony Trela, the man who put the run in running pants; while Chester Baker was national checker champion."

Wes: "That reminds me, Charon wouldn't take Frances Nellie Allen, Ph.D., Dean from Anne Drugan's Female Seminary; and Ronald McCloud, graduate with B.S. degree (Backward Student) from Powers Institute.

However, Charon carried over the big hotel men: Walter Grant, Morris Depew, and Norman Roberts, who ran their hotels on the American, European and Installment Plan; Colfa and Steveola Stasinopoulos, "The Banana Queens"; Ernest Goldstein, the Broadway Columnist who saw all, heard all and knew nothing; Eleanor King, the opera song-bird sometimes known as the 'local girl who made good,' while the great inventors were Zigmund Simondisky and Stanley Lahosky of Doorless Doorknob fame."

Deb: "Then there was Royal Tanner, president of the "Snip and Snoop" Club, which had for its members such notable snoopers as Moe Rispler, Arthur Fregeau, Robert Harper and Arthur Jubb. Also there was the big movie queen, Heather Glasle, who married more times than you have corns on your feet; and Margaret Weir, the temperamental actress, 90% temper and 10% mental; while Evelyn Crosby was the brunette who went off platinum blonde standard."

Wes: "And did you get the 'lowdown' on Stanley Malkavitz, Henry Clement Crosby, Joseph Miskinis and Sebastian Ruggeri, the 'Rambling Ramblers' who did most of their rambling in Turners Falls; and Helen Ellis, the great woman auto racer who never knew what she was driving at?"

Deb: "Oh, yes! Did you know that Charon also transported Augustine Kamienski, the Congressman, who did away with the Soldier's Bonus, by defining it Bonus, Boni, Bonum; Ann Baldwin and Virginia Cleveland, a couple of girl aviators who were good to the last drop; Guy Gray, the biggest thing in radio; and Anna Looney, Madeline Johnson, Arlene Murley, and Lillian Markwell, who were going to the old country when the James Failla Construction Company built the bridge?"

Wes: "Among the next contingent were Robert Reynolds, the Maniac of Melody with his raving maniacs: Robert Clark, William Caldwell, Francis Johnson, George Gordon Gilman, Richard Kulya, Earl Boutwell, and Donald Tatro; and the national outdoor wide open tennis champions, Marion Maynard, Helen Benjamin, Myrtle Talbot, June Robbins and Arline Whipple. Then there were 'Kay' Moleski, Bernice Chaffee, Sarah McKenney, Grace MacDonald and Betty Belton of the B. B. B. (Blonde Basketball Brigade). There were also Harriet Smith, Isadore Smith and Louise Smith of Smith, Smith, and Smith Attorneys-at-Law, headed by the honorable Judge Franklin Smith."

Deb: "I also saw transported Albert Barber, Philip Norwood, and George Peters, big producers of that smashing Broadway success: Wenonah Longstreet's 'Play Boys' that starred Gerda Rosenzweig, Chester Conant, Gwendolyn Groce, William Agonis, Rachel Jellyman and Louis Richardson. This success was highly criticized by the leading critics, Ruth Gaines and Catherine Griffin."

Wes: "Did Charon tell you about David Conant, Professor of Aesthetic Dancing; Kathleen Bagley, Mistress of Ball-room Dancing; James McCain, Missionary Preacher in China; Gerald Bates, Principal of Brattleboro High School; William Luey, Bishop of Walla Walla; Ruth Yeaw, Ollie Cook, Janet Cobb, Kathryn Bulman, Wilhelmina Kelly and Julia Merz, debutantes who came out to break into society; William Metcalf, the chemist who knew his oil; Frank Sledzik, Cecil Brown, Dwight Norwood, the renowned mathematicians who traveled in the 4th dimension?"

Deb: "There was Fred Lovell, the great lawyer, who handled the great case of Jeanette Nash, the famous movie star. Women wept and strong men like John Witek and Harold Thayer munched their chocolate bars when he told the pitiful tale how injustice was done her in the portrait drawn by Francis Lincoln. Kathleen McAuliffe, Ellen Peck and Effie White bought out the bakery business of Perry Wilder and Donald Wood, the men who had been in the dough for twenty years and made the hole in the doughnut famous. Then came the zero hour for Rena Poulos and Doris McCarthy because they ran a refrigerating plant. The three aviators who circled the fish-globe in five days were William Weissenborn, Walter Schwarz and Joseph Sindut. The Richards sisters, Muriel and Hope, were the great radio stars who made famous that great melody 'When It's Dinner

Time in Kentucky I'll Be Eating Breakfast in California,' written by those well-known composers, Helen Lamb and Althea Persons. Josephine Danilewicz, Jessie Ostroski, Josie Pankievich, Marteil Metzler, Annie Birch and Jennie Niedzwiedz were Ireland's gift to the swimming world. There was also Gwendolyn Reid, the one time burnt toast of Broadway and her play-girls, Alice Bryant, Marion Miskunas, Katherine Pulaski, Wanda Prusick, Olga Metelica, Louise Lilly and Gertrude Vickery. Marjorie Mayham, Annette Weld and Alma Richason were the models whom everybody saw on the back of magazine covers. Wellsley Thompson and George Spear, the two great bears of Wall Street who paid thousands of dollars for a seat on the stock exchange, were outdone by Victor Synder, who bought a seat at Welcome's and Phillips' big department store for two dollars and ninety-eight cents."

Deb: "Don't forget Ethelyn Aldrich, editor of the 'Greenfield Sun,' which boasts of such feature writers as: Ernest Brocklesby, 'Household Hints'; John Ward, Sports Writer; Helen Underwood, 'Fashions of the Day,' Berta Wood, 'How to get Your Man,' William McLintock, James Griffin and Walter Finn, Comic Strip Artists."

Wes: "Oh, yes! there were our great broadcasting stars: 'Radio's Love Birds': Ellen Weatherhead and Evelyn Robinson; 'Daily Hints for Housewives': Frances Strecker; 'Love Problems and Aids to Beauty': 'Kay' King; 'Care of the Feet': Betty Dorey; 'That Trim Figure': Ruth Howard; 'Singers of the Blues': Robert Harper and Evelyn Kratz; 'The Gossipers': Mildred Hutchinson; Ruth Hammond, Betty Harris and Ruth Hastings. There was Margaret and Mary Dwyer of Bedtime Story Fame."

Deb: "Can you imagine Ruth Brownell, Worthy Matron of Eastern Star; Philip Bannach, president of Clinton Berry's University? Carol Clifford and Arline Cunningham were the girls who worked all their lives to make it possible for their daughters to attend the University."

Wes: "There were also present Eileen Cavanaugh and Mary Burns, chess champions who were always just one jump ahead of their nearest competitors, Thelma Carpenter, Marie Learnard, and Maverette Newcomb."

Deb: "I also witnessed our great Kathleen Norris, Louise Galbraith, and the big garage man, Charles Foster, with his chief mechanic, Harry Dyer, and head stenographers, Effie Kopee and Marion Uzdavinis — incidentally the firm that sold Jack Kramer his last Model T number, the motor that you couldn't hear, not even when it stalled.

"Do you remember Marshall Hammond, the notable peas, beans, and barley man from the North, Margaret Cutler and Edwin Call, who went in for hairdressing, dyeing and shampooing on a big scale?"

Wes: "Did you hear about those who returned to G. H. S. before they crossed? They were Betty Dunnigan, who became head of the Math Dep't;

Margaret Fellows who instructed gymnasts; Robert Edes who gave a tasty course in cooking; and Virginia Freese who was a Latin enthusiast while Margery King, Helen Koldis, Nora Burkhardt, and Rose Krol made typewriting a major sport?"

Deb: "I witnessed James Hurlburt, the second Macaulay, who had the gout and so wrote all his works in iambic feet; Neola Morris and Genevieve Olszewski, who never had a blue Monday because they owned a laundry! John Corliss, the author who wrote that sensational novel about the ups and downs of life entitled 'Life in an Elevator.'"

Wes: "Look! Here comes Edith Bishop, Helen Cichy, Earl Coutu and Karl Bardwell which makes a boatful, counting the two of us. Now we can cross with Charon!"

Ivy Song

Tune: "All Through The Night" Old Welsh

We are plant-ing thee, O Ivy
In Mem-o-ry,
And to Life's work now departing
We'll happy be.
Though we must at this time part
And new friendships we will start
Mem'ries will be in our heart,
Of G. H. S.

Now the door is swing-ing open
We'll say "Goodbye"
Visions of the sunny future
Before us lie.
As we plant thee, Ivy, here
Emblem of our Senior Year
Keep our mem'ries always dear
Of G. H. S.

Pleasure in Duty

THE statement has been made by Franklin P. Adams, a contemporary writer, that the word "ought" should not be in the same sentence with the word "pleasure." However, I think that this quotation of George Jean Nathan, a prominent critic, more nearly expresses a way to happiness: "But duty may often best be performed, if it is viewed more as a pleasure than as a job."

The reason for the unhappiness and failure of many people is their inability to unite duty and pleasure. If one's work seems merely boring drudgery done to make a living, no outside pleasures can bring enough enjoyment to offset the unhappiness caused in his task. Furthermore, this discontent and the attempt to drown it in outside merrymaking may often impair one's ability to execute his tasks.

If everyone could love his work as did the old-fashioned carpenters, shoemakers, and other artisans, Utopia would not be so greatly desired! Nearly everyone has read the story of the shoemaker who loved to make shoes so well that his grief was extreme because he had no more leather with which to continue his work. If a similar situation might occur at the present time, I fear in most cases the cry would be, "Oh, dear! now I won't have enough money to go to the movies for a week!" or "Alas! What terrible calamity has befallen wretched me, that the Fates should keep me from being able to join the Country Club!"

Cathedral builders also must have loved their work in order to put such beauty into the buildings, as in Salisbury Cathedral in England. Nothing can surpass this beautiful edifice, queen of English cathedrals, in lightness and grace, unity and simplicity of design. Built in the form of a double cross, it has a single spire, which is considered the most beautiful in the world. It contains as many windows as there are days, and as many marble pillars as there are hours in a year. The builders of this cathedral must certainly have derived satisfaction in this achievement of beauty and grace.

No matter how uninteresting and monotonous one's work may seem, there is always something interesting and satisfying to be found in every position. The many sad and tiring visits that a doctor makes are greatly overbalanced by the pleasure derived from having saved human lives. In any position where one encounters many people it is always of interest to observe the personalities and actions of these people. The life of a student can also be made more enjoyable if he considers that it is a privilege to go to school to acquire an education and prepare for the future. There are many other pleasures for the student, but I do not mean the kind of enjoyment such as some pupils derived by counting the steps of the English professor while pacing back and forth in the classroom to determine the number of miles he would travel during one period.

I think you will find that most successful men have enjoyed their work, for that is really part of the success. One of the outstanding examples of this type is Thomas Alva Edison, who has done so much in the electrical field. Only enjoyment of his work could have caused this genius to minimize his amount of sleep so that he might have more time for his numerous experiments, which did so much to help advance the world.

William Lyon Phelps, of the Yale English Department, is a living example of one who thoroughly enjoys his work. In fact, he derives such great pleasure from it that the pleasantest thought he has on rising in the morning is the necessary work that awaits him. As all children do, he used to look forward to Christmas, Fourth of July, and other holidays with great anticipation, but now, he writes, each day is so full of pleasure that he doesn't have to wait for holidays to find happiness!

Success! Happiness! that is what everyone is seeking! Perhaps you might find this statement by Nicholas in his "Boileau-Despreaus" a helpful motto: "The rule of my life is to make business a pleasure, and pleasure my business."

Ethelyn Arlene Aldrich

Valedictory

CLASSMATES: We have had many pleasures in G. H. S. and have accomplished much under the friendly guidance of our teachers. We deeply appreciate the efforts of the citizens of Greenfield to give us a good opportunity for an education. With the memory of these pleasures and the use of the benefits gained we will leave G. H. S. to seek happiness both in our work and our play. As Robert Hovey states in his poem, "Unmanifest Destiny":

"I do not know beneath what sky
Nor on what seas shall be thy fate;
I only know it shall be high,
I only know it shall be great."

Ethelyn Arlene Aldrich

Class Song

So we, the class of thirty-two,
Our hearts and spirits strong
As sadly, tenderly, we sing
To you our parting song.
Enfolding walls have held us close
'Mid joys and sorrows, too.
Yet faithfully we've kept our course
Dear G. H. S. for you.

Now let us raise our voices strong
In one last hymn of praise.
The memories will linger on Though fleet-winged pass the days,
We hope that those behind us
Will keep the standard true
Loyalty, honor and scholarship
For the class of thirty-two.

Archery Club

Weekly meetings were held by the Archery Club throughout the fall and winter months, at which time indoor shooting formed a major part of the program. During the spring months the club held "mail" matches with several larger high schools in five different states, and up to May 18 had lost but one match. The club feels that archery offers an opportunity for social and healthful development, together with an opportunity to develop good sportsmanship and a hobby for leisure time.

Science Club

The present Science Club, dating from 1923, is an outgrowth of the old Radio Club formed in the days when radio broadcasting was in its infancy. When the interest in radio building died out, the club undertook general scientific activities of the sort most likely to promote appreciation of science in modern life. Students in the three upper classes are eligible for membership. Before a candidate becomes a member he must pass a preliminary test and be initiated.

Junior Commercial Club

The Junior Commercial Club, composed of commercial students, was organized under the same constitution as the club which was started in 1929. The purpose of the club is to bring the students closer together socially, to broaden their knowledge of business, and to finance commercial contests.

Student Council

This year the Student Council put out a questionnaire regarding the changing of the school colors. By the final vote the colors were changed from purple and white to green and white. Three members of the Council were sent as delegates to the Student Council Convention in Springfield on February 20. A committee was formed to see what revision of the constitution was necessary, and the Council supervised the sale of "Buddy" Poppies for the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Hi-Y Club

The Greenfield Hi-Y this year has been active at all conferences held in the different parts of the state. The Hi-Y sent boys to Quincy to the annual Two-State Older Boys' Conference, and also to Pittsfield to the Berkshire Conference. During the summer of 1931 Greenfield Hi-Y was represented by four delegates at the world conference held in Toronto. To make this possible a play was presented toward which the school admirably contributed. At a recent convention in Springfield, James Leh '33 was elected President of the Congress of Hi-Y officers assembled. During the year three inductions were held. Parents were invited to witness the second and the faculty was invited to witness the last. The annual Hi-Y Commencement Dance ended a very successful year for the local club.

Greenfield Girl Scouts

Troop V

Troop V, Greenfield Girl Scouts, has been very active this year. Membership in the troop has doubled and the meetings, which are held each Monday evening, have been very interesting. The first part of the year was devoted to charity work. Since Christmas much time has been given over to the formation of a Drum and Bugle Corps. The Rotary Club provided the instruments and the instruction. In May, the Corps witnessed the state competition at Boston. In addition to these activities, Troop V held a rummage sale and a card party, both of which proved to be very successful.
